Senate Acts To Take Up Bill To Provide Payroll

Would Stop Civil Rights Until Ballot

Money Needed To Pay Defense, Agriculture Departments Payrolls

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate voted 89-0 today to take up for final action a bill carrying money to run the armed services in the 12 months which started July 1. It did so shortly after the White House said the Defense Department and other agencies might not be able to meet their August payrolls unless the Senate acted on pending money bills stymied by the civil rights debate.

Approval of the motion to take up the defense appropriation bill temporarily displaced the civil rights bill.

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) moves today to set aside the civil rights bill long enough to permit Senate action on bills to give the Defense and Agriculture departments urgently needed cash.

Johnson, the Senate Democratic leader, said in an interview that "if anybody wants to have the blood on their hands of not paying our soldiers, they can oppose this motion to take up the defense bill."

Temporary Authority

The Defense and Agriculture departments, along with a number of other agencies, have been operating for the past month under temporary spending authority pending final congressional approval of their regular appropriations bills for the fiscal year that began July 1. That temporary authority expired last midnight.

The compromise $33,759,850,000 defense bill and a $3,666,544,757 agriculture bill need only final Senate passage before going to the White House for President Eisenhower's signature.

Priority Status

But the compromise money bills rate as priority legislation, and under Senate rules can be taken up by majority vote without displacing the civil rights bill.

President Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday that a lack of funds and authority by key government agencies "is a very serious thing."

He noted that legal authority to pay 1 1/2 million civilian government workers and the 2,800,000 persons in the armed services expired last night.

Stopgap Measure

Once the defense and agriculture measures are out of the way, the Senate probably will be asked to approve a stopgap measure for spending authority during August for a long list of other federal agencies.

Beautiful Blonde Grabs Attention; Thief Gets Cash

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It was a frustrating double holdup that befell market owner Paul Gertz.

A robber stole $1,500 while a blonde stole the show.

The intruder pulled a gun on Gertz and told him: "I want all the bills. Hurry up. I'm nervous."

While Gertz was getting the money together, he tried desperately to attract the attention of several other customers in the store.

No luck. Their gaze was locked on a beautiful blonde customer.

Gertz said the robber was tall, about 28, and had sandy hair.

The only description the customers could furnish was: "Blonde . . . lovely eyes . . . beautiful figure."

Slayer's Wife Takes Blame

TAIPEI (AP)—Chang Po-fang was freed from prison yesterday after serving half of a 15-year term for murdering his mistress.

His wife, waiting outside with the 7-year-old son Chang had never seen, said the blame for the crime was hers.

"Had I been perfect," she said, "he would never have committed such a crime."

'Confidential' Libel Hearing Due To Open

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rory Calhoun has lost an attempt to keep Confidential magazine's attorneys from calling him to court tomorrow.

That's when criminal libel charges will be tried against a subsidiary of the scandal magazine and two officials of the firm.

The actor and a host of other Hollywood personalities have been subpoenaed to appear, even though they aren't mentioned in the state case against Confidential.

Attorneys said the ruling would presumably apply to others similarly subpoenaed.

The state has submitted eight stories in Confidential that the prosecution claims are libelous and obscene. The stories involve Maureen O'Hara, Dick Powell, Robert Mitchum, Dorothy Dandridge, Corinne Calvet, Mae West, John Carroll and Mark Stevens.

The defense attorney said that he might call as many as 200 witnesses, many of them celebrities to establish the truth of articles printed in Confidential and its sister magazine, Whisper.

Defendants in the case are Fred and Marjorie Meade and Hollywood Research, Inc., described as Confidential's Hollywood source.

Rules, Civil Rights Fight, Tie Up Urgent Senate Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP)—How can the Senate untangle itself temporarily from the civil rights fight so that it can act on other urgent legislation?

One way would be for all the senators to agree to do so. But it takes only the objection of one senator to block this course, as Sen. Morse (D-Ore.) has demonstrated.

In the absence of a unanimous consent agreement, the Senate is bound by its rules of procedure and these offer all sorts of complications.

The problem is how to keep the civil rights bill from being displaced as the pending business in

'Big 3' Hinted At Odds Over Nuclear Cuts

Ways, Means Sought For Program; Three Top Ministers Meet

LONDON (AP)—French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau flew to London today for disarmament talks with Secretary of State Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd amid reports that the Allies are divided on the advisability and ways of making nuclear cutbacks.

The British government has expressed opposition to halting immediately the testing of its newly developed H-bombs. And France has made clear that so long as nuclear weapon production continues, it wants to get in the British-Soviet-U.S. nuclear inner circle by developing its own weapons.

Officials indicated that the detailed consideration of these problems would have to be kicked up to the three heads of government for possible solutions.

Dulles put in a busy day yesterday conferring both with Western officials and Soviet disarmament delegate Valerian Zorin. Representatives of the five U.N. Disarmament subcommittee nations—Britain, France, Russia, Canada and the United States—got together for a working luncheon which Dulles attended.

The five delegations approved a noncommittal report for the U.N. parent Disarmament Commission to meet the Aug. 1 deadline it had set the subcommittee. Informants said the report made no mention of a recess in the talks and there was general agreement that the negotiations should be continued.

Gonzalez Tries For New Cabinet For Guatemala

GUATEMALA (AP)—Acting President Arturo Gonzalez today was reported putting together a new Guatemalan cabinet.

Eduardo Rodriguez, interior minister in the government of assassinated President Carlos Castillo Armas, told reporters the old Cabinet had resigned to permit the acting president to name a new one.

Unofficial sources said Gonzalez would appoint the widow of the slain President minister of education. Gonzalez said last night Mrs. Castillo Armas had offered to help the government carry out her husband's social and economic program and that he might name her to a Cabinet post.

17 Youths Accused In Stabbing Of Two

NEW YORK (INS)—Nine youths were charged with homicide in connection with the slaying of Michael Farmer, 15, son of fireman Ray Farmer, were: Leroy "The Magician" Birch, 18; Charles Horton, 18; George Melendez, 16; Louis Alvarez, 16; Leonico de Leon, 16; John McCarthy, 15; Richard Hills, 15; Julio Clusan, 15 and Howard Rowan, 15.

The nine were ordered arraigned in Adolescents Court. The eight youths charged with juvenile delinquency included one 15, six 14 year olds and one 13. Their names were not disclosed.

One of the juveniles was charged both in connection with the slaying and the near-fatal assault on Roger McShane.

Jury Trials' Defeat Seen By Senator

Knowland Forecasts Revision Won't Sway Wavering Legislators

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said today he was confident a jury trial amendment to the civil rights bill would be defeated despite its revision in an apparent effort to sway wavering senators.

But supporters for a jury trial provision evidently hoped that the revised amendment would tip the scales their way in the nip-and-tuck fight over the issue.

A new section added to the pending amendment last night would permit Negroes or others to serve as federal court jurors regardless of whether or not they were qualified under state laws.

Still Opposed

Knowland said that while this change in federal law might be desirable in itself, it did not lessen his opposition to writing a jury trial into the civil rights measure.

And he told a reporter he did not believe the proposal had cost opponents of the amendment any votes. He said he still was confident of victory and was ready to vote at any time.

But there were indications that proponents of the jury trial amendment—including Southern senators who are opposing any civil rights legislation—also are looking forward more confidently to a showdown.

Vote This Week

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas said in recessing a 10-hour Senate session last night he believed it would be possible to get a vote on the amendment this week.

Earlier in the day, Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), the Southern's quarter-back, had blocked by three separate objections as many efforts by Knowland to get unanimous consent for a vote on the amendment this week.

Sponsors of the new section to the amendment included Senators Pastore (D-R.I.) and Kennedy (D-Mass.), both of whose positions on the jury question had been regarded as uncertain.

However, Pastore said he was not committed to voting for the amendment. Kennedy was not available.

Couple Freed By Kidnapers

TILLAMOOK, Ore. (AP)—Mrs. Alda Lorene Wright, 62, and James Thomas Aubrey, 81, were released—apparently unharmed—after being held 24 hours by two gunmen who robbed her country store of about $500.

"Mrs. Wright had some bruises on her arm," reported Sgt. Bill Maulding of the Oregon state police. "I don't know how she got them. They were treated good, at times. They were offered food and the gunmen bought sandwiches for them."

Police said Aubrey apparently was shopping in Mrs. Wright's store at Jasper, about 10 miles south of Eugene, when the two men held it up and abducted them Tuesday.

Montana Prison Clean-up Pushed Following Riots

DEER LODGE, Mont. (AP)—The task of cleaning up continued today inside riot-torn Montana State Prison.

A sort of armed truce prevailed as prison inmates agreed to sit tight until prison commissioners have had a chance to study the demands made during their nine-hour uprising Tuesday.

The riot began Tuesday afternoon when a group of convicts apparently became angered over a guard's order to shell peas. They held eight guards as hostage, releasing them only after Anderson assured them that their demands would be given consideration by the prison board.

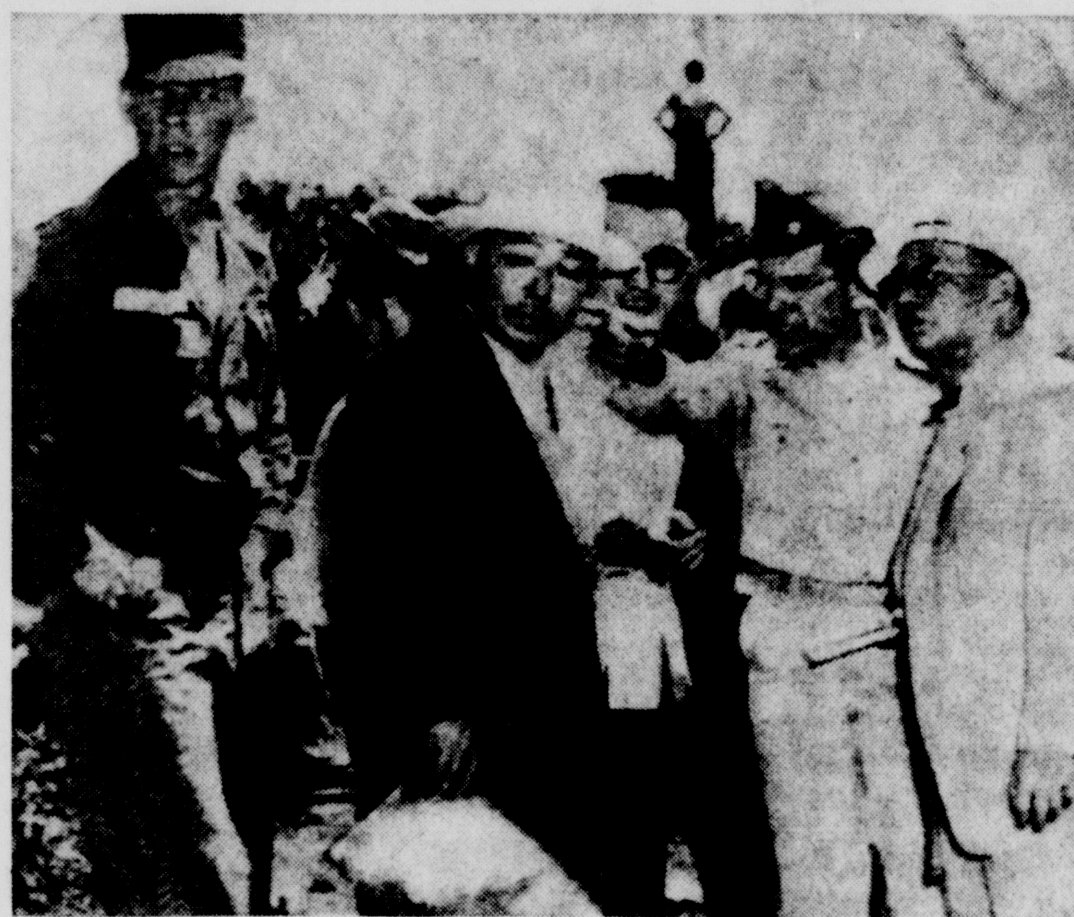

Meanwhile, in Helena Gov. J. Hugo Aronson, ex-officio chairman of the prison board, announced that a board meeting scheduled today was postponed until early next week to give Warden F. O. Burrell a chance to appraise the situation and "get his feet on the ground."

Hungary Red Police Arrest More Priests

Mindszenty Accused Of Instructing Them During Revolt Activity

BUDAPEST (AP)—Hungary's Communist government struck out today at opponents in the Roman Catholic Church, announcing the arrest of what it called a "major group of counterrevolutionary priests."

The Interior Ministry in a statement also accused Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, a refugee in the U.S. legation in Budapest since last November, of instructing those arrested to loot the government's religious affairs office during the anti-Russian revolt last fall.

The statement charged the cardinal's secretary, the Rev. Albert Egon Turcsanyi, "took part in the looting at the head of an armed group."

Shipped To Mindszenty

"They shipped the secret documents to Mindszenty," the ministry said.

The Budapest press reported previously that Father Turcsanyi is in jail.

The statement said the group of "looters" also included Istvan Tabodi, a fourth-year theological student; Pal Lieszkovsky, identified as a lieutenant colonel under the dictatorship of pro-Nazi Adm. Nicholas Horthy; Fathers Imbre Vargu, Antal Kukla and "several other priests."

Total Not Announced

The total number arrested was not announced. The statement said they would go on trial "shortly" in Budapest Municipal Court.

Cardinal Mindszenty, convicted of treason by the Communist regime and sentenced to life imprisonment, was released last Oct. 31 by the anti-Soviet rebels and received a tumultuous welcome back to Budapest. He took refuge in the American legation Nov. 4 when Soviet troops and tanks opened up on the rebels to crush the revolt.

Hospitals Gain In Admissions

CHICAGO (AP)—Twenty-two million persons, approximately one-eighth of the nation's population, were admitted to hospitals as patients last year, the American Hospital Assn. said today.

The association's current issue of Hospitals said the admissions showed an increase of 41 per cent over 1946 and nearly 5 per cent over 1955.

The number of births last year in the 6,966 hospitals covered in the survey totaled 3,491,141, an increase of 64 per cent over 1946 but only 1 per cent above the 1955 figure.

British Army Chief Checks Battle Sector

MANAMA, Bahrain (AP)—Lt. Gen. Sir Geoffrey Bourne, commander in chief of British Middle East land forces, arrived in Bahrain from Cyprus today to check on the desert war in Oman.

Bourne was expected to go on to Muscat to confer with Sultan Said bin Taimur and his field commanders. He may advise the Sultan on action designed to polish off the ground operations against the dissidents led by the Imam Ghaleb bin Ali. The Imam, spiritual leader of Oman, is trying to set up an independent sultanate in the Arabian Peninsula area.

British Air Force jets this week extended their targets from the heavily walled forts of the region to hit rebel transport and materials.

British troops have moved up to the oasis of Buraimi, a desert junction between Saudi Arabia and the Sultan's coastal domain, but so far it is believed ground operations against the rebels are being carried on only by the Sultan's British-officered troops.

George Reported Holding His Own

VIENNA, Ga. (AP)—Walter F. George, President Eisenhower's special ambassador to NATO, appeared to be holding his own today in his fight for life against heart disease.

His physician, Dr. Martin L. Malloy, said the 79-year-old former senator had a pretty fair day yesterday, slept well and ate three poached eggs. His breathing was described as pretty good and no oxygen was used.

Racketeer Aided Work In Virginia

Washburn Testifies At Rackets Inquiry; Also Names Dubinsky

WASHINGTON (AP)—A former union official testified today New York racketeer Johnny Dio once was employed by the International Ladies Garment Workers Union to help organize a Roanoke, Va., plant.

Lester Washburn, former president of the old AFL United Auto Workers—now named the Allied Industrial Workers in the AFL-CIO—gave the testimony to the Senate Rackets Committee.

The date of Dio's alleged employment for the Roanoke job was not brought out specifically, but it was indicated it was around 1950.

Dubinsky Did Not Help

Washburn said that in 1951 or 1952, when he was seeking to oust Dio from the UAW-AFL, he went to David Dubinsky, president of the ILGWU, to ask his aid but got no help from Dubinsky. The latter is an AFL-CIO vice president and a member of the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee.

Washburn said Dubinsky "got very excited" when Washburn told Dubinsky that the ILGWU once itself had retained Dio to do an organizing job at a Roanoke, Va., plant.

Washburn said he was misled when he let Dio into the UAW-AFL.

Washburn told the Senate Rackets Committee he granted a charter to the union's Local 102 in New York in 1950 without ever knowing Dio was financing it. He said he was told the charter was wanted by a group which was quitting a rival CIO union in belief it was Communist dominated.

Fired Dio

In 1954, Washburn fired Dio out of the union and suspended seven locals Dio allegedly controlled, but his executive board promptly reversed those orders and cleared Dio. Washburn then resigned.

Washburn, who said he now operates a summer resort near Rhineclander, Wis., was called as the committee prepared to quiz Dio's former bodyguard 240-pound Teddy Rij, who pronounces his name, and spells it, as "Ray."

Washburn said the first he heard of Dio was when the racketeer "more or less muscled in" as head of Local 102, pushing out Sam Zakman as president.

Guesses At Motives

The witness said he "could only guess" about Dio's motives, but inquired and both "heard" that Dio had been "connected with the so-called Lepke mob," a New York gang known also as Murder, Inc.

He said he also learned the story that a group of workers had wanted to form Local 102 "wasn't true," but he never did say who had told him the story in the first place.

Washburn said he became convinced that Dio had used "mob money" to finance the local while it was getting started and suspected that "he wanted in to exploit the workers."

Then, the lean, spectacled witness said, he learned that Dio owned a nonunion dress shop and "I raised hell about that."

Airmen Face Japan Curfew

TOKYO (AP)—The U. S. Air Force announced today it has ordered a "precautionary" week-night 7 p. m. curfew at Hamamatsu air base after several incidents involving Japanese townspeople and American airmen.

The Air Force gave no details of the incidents. Japanese newspaper accounts said on one occasion Americans had threatened Japanese civilians with knives.

Most Of Graham 'Decisions' Made By New Yorkers

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Graham's staff reports that a survey has shown that the large majority of "decisions for Christ" during his New York crusade came from persons living in New York City and within a 25-mile radius.

The survey was based on "decision" cards filled out by 34,269 persons in the first 10 weeks of the crusade. The crusade is in its 12th week at Madison Square Garden.

The evangelist's staff reported that the survey showed that 91 per cent of all recorded decisions in the first 10 weeks were by persons in the city and environs within 25 miles.

Outside the city in the 25-mile area, New Jersey accounted for 9,007 decisions, Long Island 3,208, Connecticut 788 and suburban Westchester County 333.

The survey also showed that decisions were made by 2,300 persons who came from other parts of the United States to hear the evangelist.

Senate Group Scans Ceylon Envoy Choice

Herter Summoned To Review How Gluck Was Chosen

WASHINGTON (P)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee arranged a closed session today to hear how Maxwell H. Gluck was picked to be the new ambassador to Ceylon.

Undersecretary of State Christian Herter was summoned to tell about the State Department's selection of the 57-year-old businessman and horse breeder for the diplomatic post. He also was expected to discuss general policies on such appointments.

Gluck, who has said he contributed to the Republican campaign fund in 1952 and 1956, was confirmed by the Senate July 3.

Controversy over the appointment was touched off several days ago with publication of a partial transcript of a Foreign Relations Committee hearing at which Gluck's nomination was approved.

The transcript indicated Gluck was not familiar with the names of the prime ministers of Ceylon or India, and that he did not know Ceylon had signed a U. N. sub-committee report on Russia's intervention in Hungary.

At a press conference yesterday, Gluck said he had been briefed by the State Department. He added he actually knew the names of the two prime ministers when he appeared before the committee, but that he could not pronounce them.

But, the new ambassador continued, he now knows how to say the names—Solomon Bandaranaike of Ceylon and Jawaharlal Nehru of India.

Waist, Not Hem, To Be Dior's Fashion Feature

PARIS—(INS)—Christian Dior today put skirt hem problems in second place and gave top fashion priority and significance to waist treatment in his new "Spindle Line."

In an exclusive question and answer interview with International News Service, the famed designer indicated that, for him, at least it's the waist that makes the news this season.

The questions and answers follow:

Q. Do you think that 1958 elegance is a question of skirt length, waistline or belt, or can it be expressed in fabrics in new styles?

A. This time elegance is expressed by the new waist style and the new line in which dresses fall (often unbroken) from the shoulders to the hemline.

Q. What does your femme ideale look like?

A. A spindle.

Q. Which outfits in your collection (suits, dresses, cocktail styles or evening gowns) are most significant fashionwise?

A. Day dresses in the spindle line and cocktail gowns which evoke the 18th century.

Q. What's your definition of elegance for next winter?

A. For daytime, I recommend clothes that are simple, almost austere.

For late day and evening, dresses that are extremely feminine and which this season are

Hoffa Exudes Confident Air In Union Test

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—James R. Hoffa, acting and talking his assurance of succeeding Dave Beck as Teamsters Union president, says the union's chief executive should be an administrative officer under the executive board.

Hoffa joined members of a special constitution committee today in reshaping the union charter under which Beck held virtually dictatorial power. Hoffa, a vice president, flew here from his Detroit headquarters.

Asked about Senate Racket Committee accusations linking him with an asserted "hoodlum stranglehold over the Port of New York," Hoffa last night told reporters: "There is nothing I can not answer, and anything I do answer will not affect my candidacy for union president."

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) accused Hoffa of being involved in exploitation of union members in New York.

"They do have a job to do," Hoffa said.

"But I can say that their statements concerning me are based on rumor, misstatements and misunderstandings."

Hoffa was often inspired by 18th Century costumes.

Q. Are you launching a specific new color for winter?

A. No, no specific color. I like all colors, except yellow and purple.

Q. Will a woman be well-dressed and look Parisian when wearing black? Should she have at least one black dress in her winter wardrobe?

A. Black is a perfectly safe color for daytime, but I love color for daytime, but I love wear. Of course, any woman should have at least one black dress.

Ike Applauds 50th Birthday Of Air Force

Terms Unit As Key Element In Nation's Power For Peace

By VERN HAUGHLAND
AP Aviation Writer

WASHINGTON (P)—The Air Force celebrated its 50th birthday today, and President Eisenhower joined the cheers and applause.

"In this 50th anniversary year, the United States Air Force is a key element in the nation's power for peace," Eisenhower said.

"With vigor, imagination and a keen sense of duty, the Air Force has achieved a splendid tradition of service in defense of the free world."

Eisenhower expressed himself in a message of greeting to Reserve Brig. Gen. John P. Henebry of Chicago, president of the Air Force Assn.

Memorial Services

Many of the 6,000 men and women at the annual convention of the AFA planned to attend mid-morning golden anniversary memorial services at Arlington National Cemetery.

The celebration marks an Army order of Aug. 1, 1907, creating the Aeronautical Division of the Signal Corps. The Air Force traces its beginning to that order. It later grew to become, as the Air Corps, a major branch of the Army and, since World War II, a separate service under the Defense Department.

Aviation Exhibit

The AFA opened a three-day exhibit of new missiles and aviation products, including the official unveiling of:

1. A new 30 mm. version of the 20 mm. Vulcan machine gun. Providing jet aircraft with three times the striking power of the earlier gun, it was developed by General Electric at Burlington, Vt.
2. A model of the Air Force's newest all-weather navigation system, the ASN-7, being produced by the Ford Instrument Division of Sperry Rand Corp. The system continuously and automatically tells a pilot where he is, the direction he should fly, and the distance to his destination.
3. The Lockheed X-17 research rocket which blasts "nose cone" shapes into space and brings them smashing down through the earth's atmosphere in a severe test of survival.

Power Of Small Nations In U. N. Hit By Churchill

Rules, Civil

LONDON (P)—Sir Winston Churchill called last night for revision of the U. N. Charter to trim the power of small nations in the world organization.

Britain's elder statesman told the closing banquet of the American Bar Assn. convention: "It is anomalous that the vote or prejudice of any small country should affect events involving populations many times its own numbers and affect them as momentary self-advantage may direct."

Churchill said new members have swollen the General Assembly to 81 members at the same time great power disputes have thrown increasing responsibility on the Assembly.

"I do not want tonight to suggest an elaborate new charter for the U. N.," the former Prime Minister said. "But I think we can all agree that its present conception is imperfect and must be improved."

Publicity Plane Crash In Japan Kills Three

OSAKA, Japan (P)—A Japanese commercial plane being used to publicize the movie "The Spirit of St. Louis" to crowds of swimmers crashed into the sea off Osaka today, killing three Japanese aboard. The dead were Toshiro Inatomi, publicity chief in Osaka for Warner Brothers, and two Japanese pilots.

Two Teenagers Killed In Highway Crash

HANOVER, Pa. (P)—Two teenage boys were killed and eight other boys and girls were injured last night when their automobile crashed into a utility pole.

The victims were Albert Eugene Shaefer, 16, Westminster, R.D. 4, Md., and William Robert White, 15, Greentown, Md., R.D. 1.

The wreck occurred about 10:30 p.m. on the Hanover-Baltimore highway about five miles south of Hanover.

Church Unit Asks Ending Bomb Tests

Rules, Civil

NEW HAVEN, P.—An international church agency today suggested that Christians urge their governments to halt nuclear bomb tests — for a trial period — without waiting for iron-clad treaties.

The step was endorsed by the Commission of the Churches on International Affairs in a report to a policy-making meeting of the World Council of Churches, which has not yet acted on the matter.

The Rev. Dr. O. Frederick Nolde, of Philadelphia, director of the C. C. I. A., presented the 900-word statement, along with a supplemental 3,000-word analysis of scientific findings on bomb testing.

The Commission's executive committee, which adopted the proposal, includes five Americans, two men from Great Britain, and one each from seven other countries.

Baltimore Man Accused As Numbers Racketeer

BALTIMORE (AP) — A Negro Baptist minister was accused yesterday of running a numbers racket and keeping his five young children holed up in a dark, filthy basement for long periods.

Held for the grand jury in bail totaling $3,000, he was booked as the Rev. Mr. Kelly T. Johnson, 29. Police Sgt. Violet Hill Whyte testified in magistrate's court that the children, 2 to 6, could not keep their eyes open in the glare of sunlight and could barely walk or speak when she rescued them from the cellar.

She said she had received about 20 anonymous telephone calls about the children. Some callers said the children had not been seen outdoors for more than six months.

Sgt. Whyte said she and a fellow officer investigating the children's plight found numbers slips in Johnson's possession. The slips indicated bets totaling $71, she said.

Magistrate Linwood G. Koger set Johnson's bail at $2,500 on the numbers charge and at $500 on a charge of failing to provide for the support of his children.

Sgt. Whyte said the mother of the children died of tuberculosis in 1955.

State Line Study Slated

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Gov. Underwood appointed today members of two study groups—one to recommend possible changes in the West Virginia Constitution, the other to determine the Monroe County-Virginia line.

Both groups were set up in resolutions adopted by the 1957 Legislature. The governor's three choices for a commission to determine the correct boundary between Monroe County and Virginia are Auditor Edgar B. Sims, Monroe County Prosecutor Forest Roles and State Geologist Paul Price. The Virginia governor also will appoint three commission members.

To study constitutional revision, the Legislature called for a 45-member commission. In addition, the commission will have three ex-officio members—the governor, Senate president and House speaker—and each will choose 15 appointed members.

Many Boundaries

Tennessee is bounded by more states than any other state of the Union. Its borders are adjacent to eight states: Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina and Virginia.

An old legend says that where there is no food, the pelican tears her breast and feeds her young with her own blood.

WINS AWARD—Daniel Auchenchach, Johnstown, assistant superintendent of Cambria County schools, has been selected for the 1957 Benjamin Rush Award of the Pennsylvania Medical Society.

County Opens War On Foxes

FAIRFAX, Va. (AP) — Fairfax County has agreed to join Loudoun County in trapping foxes to prevent the spread of rabies.

The Fairfax Board of Supervisors appropriated $2,000 for a three-month campaign to begin in January. The money will be used to pay salaries of two trappers, for purchase of traps and a $2 a fox bounty.

The board's action followed a request by H. M. Hallett, chairman of the Loudoun County Anti-Rabies Committee. Hallett said two cases of rabid foxes had been discovered in his county, and that rabies has appeared in Fauquier County and elsewhere in Virginia.

Ten Counties In State Need Drought Aid

Gov. McKeldin Urges President To Declare Them Disaster Areas

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Gov. McKeldin today urged President Eisenhower to declare eight Eastern Shore counties and two in Southern Maryland drought disaster areas.

The request was relayed to the President by Albert W. Quinn, McKeldin's assistant, after Quinn talked with the vacationing governor by telephone from Madrid, Spain, yesterday.

In his letter to the President, Quinn called the request "urgent." Aid was requested for Kent, Queen Annes, Talbot, Caroline, Dorchester, Somerset, Wicomico and Worcester counties—all on the Eastern Shore, and for Calvert and Charles counties in Southern Maryland.

"This action by the governor is taken on the recommendation of the Maryland U. S. Department of Agriculture Disaster Committee (which) followed a study of considerable thoroughness and duration . . ." the letter to the President said.

"Gov. McKeldin respectfully asks, sir, that this urgent matter have your prompt attention so that these particularly distressed agricultural counties may have early assurance of the federal assistance authorized under the credit and special program of the U. S. Department of Agriculture," the letter said.

Designation of the 10 counties as a disaster area would enable farmers in those counties to borrow from the government at low interest rates. They apparently have been harder hit than other Maryland counties in the prolonged dry spell which has gripped the state. Quinn said the USDA committee headed by Leonard C. Burns studied other Maryland counties as well as these in making its recommendation.

In another development in the drought situation yesterday, the Board of Public Works again refused to experiment with artificial rainmaking as a possible means of bringing relief.

The decision was announced after the board had taken up a second report from a special committee it had appointed to study the possibility of inducing rain through seeding of clouds.

Last Friday the board turned down a request for $63,201 for such an experiment, but left the way open for considering a smaller venture of the same kind.

The committee said in its second report the cloud-seeding could be done for $27,000.

But the board cited an apparent lack of "public confidence" in the proposal and said it had no requests from individual farmers or farm groups to underwrite the experiment.

"In view of all the considerations at hand, it is now the decision of the board . . . that all proposals for the spending of public funds . . . for the artificial inducement of rain . . . be rejected," the board's statement said.

The board, which is made up of the governor, comptroller and state treasurer, also noted that the University of Maryland agricultural authorities and U. S. Weather Bureau officials had refused to endorse the proposal.

"We maintain the hope that an usually bounteous nature and the known resourcefulness of Maryland farmers will compensate in the future for the distress of the present period," the board said, "and we continue our advocacy for preparation against future prolonged periods of dryness through state legislation and local action to provide for the storage of surface waters in the seasons of rain for agricultural use in the periods of drought," the board said.

OUR COUNTRY

The union of hearts, the union of hands and the Flag of our Union for ever.—Morris.

Debt To Castillo

NO ONE IS LIKELY to argue that the assassinated President Carlos Castillo Armas of Guatemala was one of the great statesmen of the mid-20th century. But in his lifetime he nevertheless performed an invaluable service for free men in the Western Hemisphere. It was he who just a little more than three years ago led the successful military coup against Guatemala's then strongly pro-Communist government. By his smashing victory he stamped out what could have been a highly menacing Red foothold in Latin America. Evidence was mounting in 1954 that the Communists were using tiny Guatemala as a base for operations elsewhere in the hemisphere. Most alarming was the government's purchase of 2,000 tons of arms from Communist Czechoslovakia.

CASTILLO ARMAS, in neighboring Honduras after escaping from political imprisonment in 1950, organized the June, 1954, rebellion. He crossed the Guatemalan border with only 200 poorly trained and ill-equipped soldiers. But once within the country he saw his numbers swell quickly to 500 and more. This force was able to defeat the half-hearted troops of the then president, Jacobo Arbenz Guzman, who resigned and took refuge in Mexico along with many of his followers. Although the United States always denied it, reports persisted that the late John E. Peurifoy, in 1954 our ambassador to Guatemala, had been heavily instrumental in assisting the Castillo Armas revolt. In any event, we have steadily extended the anti-Communist government many kinds of aid to help tide the nation over the emergency created by the confusion Castillo Armas inherited from the Arbenz regime.

OF COURSE THERE had been numerous rumors of uprising against Castillo Armas in the intervening years, but he had seemed in firm control of the situation. He was one of the best-guarded heads of state in this hemisphere. Yet one of his own guards, labeled a Communist, killed him. An established anti-Communist, Vice President Luis Arturo Gonzales Lopez, now takes over the government until elections announced for four months from this time. Obviously the United States must do all it can to help the anti-Red forces keep control. Fortunately the little country is currently enjoying substantial prosperity. We cannot afford to see a serious downturn there in the delicate circumstances created by Castillo Armas' assassination. We and all free lands owe him a deep debt. The best way we can pay it is to make sure that his bold 1954 stroke against communism is not wasted effort. His monument should be the continued freedom of Guatemala.

Magic's Worn Off

A COUPLE OF decades ago, "ten thousand dollars a year" was a magic phrase. It meant luxury, and a big house, and stature in the community. Something has happened to the magic. A global war happened, for one thing, and a decade of upheaval and change since the end of that war. Ten-thousand-a-year men are fairly common now. The glamor has worn off the figure. The glamor has worn off because the sum of $10,000 is far from being what it used to be. The man with a gross income of $10,000 now, says U. S. News and World Report, is making the equivalent of only about $4,300 as of 1939. To be as well off as the man who made $10,000 in 1939, he would now have to take in about $25,000. One big reason for this is the rise in prices. Virtually everything we use costs substantially more than it did before World War II. Another reason for the tarnish marks on that shiny 10,000 is high taxes — federal, state and local. Even a $10,000-a-year man in 1929 — with the equivalent of almost $25,000 in 1957 dollars, remember — paid a maximum federal tax of only eight per cent. Today, even for most ordinary wage earners the federal income tax rate is 20 per cent. All this makes pretty dismal material for reflection. But in matters of this kind there's no use trying to avoid the facts. The big economic fact of 1957 is that if you want that $10,000-a-year glow you've got to shoot for $25,000.

Demos Popular; Republicans Have Money

WASHINGTON—Democrats are ahead of Republicans in the Gallup poll, but Republicans are ahead in Dun and Bradstreet.

To improve the Democratic financial rating, that is, to narrow the Republican bulge in campaign funds, the Democratic National Committee is putting on a drive to get as many small contributions as possible from the Democratic rank and file to offset the big donations from wealthy individuals and wealthy families available to Republicans.

The new plan is to sell sustaining memberships in the Democratic party at $10 each, with which goes a fancy membership card and a free subscription to "The Democratic Digest."

We saw the drive touched off the first of the week by Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler, when he presented the No. 1 membership card to former President Truman at his office in the Truman Library at Independence, Mo.

REPUBLICAN edge over Democrats in campaign funds was nearly two to one in the 1956 campaign, according to the report to the Senate by its Privileges and Elections Subcommittee, after an exhaustive investigation directed by Senator Albert Gore.

Chairman Butler's scheme to get widespread small contributions from the party rank and file is not the first undertaken by Democrats, but it is likely to be the most vigorous.

A plan devised by Beardsley Ruml, New York department store executive, for the sale of $5 certificates was used in the 1952 Democratic campaign for Adlai Stevenson. While it was successful here and there, it got started too late.

In 1956 Democrats again made a bid for wide-scale small contributions with some success, dramatizing it with a door-to-door solicitation on Dollars For Democrats Day in mid-October. Adlai Stevenson himself participated by calling upon his neighbors in Libertyville. Incidentally, a Dollars For Democrats Day every year is to be part of the new plan for small donations.

WHAT Democrats learned during — and since — the 1956 campaign guarantees much more energy in the new drive.

The Gore report showed them how much of a monopoly Republicans have on handsome contributions from corporate wealth and big finance. In contrast, the monopoly which the Democrats have on contributions from organized labor, as revealed in the Gore report, has a very modest yield.

For example, Republicans received $1,040,526 from a dozen wealthy families, while the total contributions to Democrats from all of organized labor all over the country was only slightly larger, $1,209,560. That came the hard way, a dollar apiece, usually.

Democrats hoped to get a more even balance with Republicans through revision of the present woefully inadequate laws covering campaign contributions and expenditures. But it does not seem likely that Congress will do that before the next Congressional election, so the Democrats will find themselves under the same handicap as before. This adds urgency to the Small Donations drive.

AS A RESULT of the investigation he directed, Senator Gore has introduced a comprehensive bill that, among other things, would close the gaping loophole in the existing law which permits the creation of all sorts of special campaign committees, local and state; these special committees need never report their contributions or expenditures.

The Gore bill would require publicity for all money spent by all such committees and, in Presidential and Congressional contests, the limit of expenditures would be raised to a realistic level.

There is another comprehensive bill, differing in some respects, introduced by Senator John McClellan who was chairman of a special committee that investigated lobbying and campaign expenditures.

The hand-to-mouth financing of Democratic campaigns, even Presidential campaigns, is familiar to anyone who ever has traveled with Presidential candidates.

Vividly recalled is the contrast between former President Truman's cross-country campaign in 1948 and that of his opponent, Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York. President Truman was able to appear but rarely on state and regional radio hook-ups, while Governor Dewey spoke over such very frequently. The Democrats just didn't have the money.

"Fat Cat" Envoys Are Often Useful

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Wiley Buchanan, State Department's chief of protocol, took this writer to task the other day—in a nice polite way—for a recent column on the appointment of political fat cats as U. S. ambassadors overseas.

The piece had pointed out that 17 of President Eisenhower's ambassadorial appointees had donated just because they had made big contributions to the political party in power. And they weren't appointed just because they were rich men who could entertain and put on the social dog in a way that career U. S. Foreign Service officers cannot afford to do.

Any self-respecting striped pants diplomat might look down his cane at any such background as training to represent the U. S. A. abroad. But Buchanan—as a well-to-do and personable young Texan with a charming wife, to put everything conservatively—had been for Ike in 1952. And so he became ambassador.

An embassy staff often prefers a noncareer ambassador over a chief of mission out of the Foreign Service, Buchanan allows. He will do what has to be done and spend what has to be spent—out of his own pocket if necessary—to represent properly the richest country in the world.

His counselor must always walk three paces behind him at official functions. He maintains a social caste system in his staff that is frightening. And having to live within his income and allowances, he is often a penny-pincher.

Ambassador Buchanan was of course no tightwad. He kept up the pace set by millionaire Perle Mesta, whom he succeeded. Buchanan entertained over 100,000 guests—an average of 30 for every meal for three years. Mrs. Buchanan kept the news of all this flowing back to the Washington society writers.

SO AS FURTHER reward, Ambassador Buchanan was recalled to Washington to become chief of protocol in the summer of 1956.

One day the Republican National Committee headquarters called him up and asked him how about a campaign contribution? The ambassador demurred. He had spent about $100,000 in the three years previous, paying the government's extra expense bills. He thought he had done a good bit for his country.

But sharing his office in the State Department was Fred M. Alger of Michigan, who had been Eisenhower's political appointee as ambassador to Belgium. When the GOP called Alger, he kicked in $1,500.

Shortly thereafter Buchanan sent 'em $1,000, too. And that accounts for his political contribution.

Glancing Sideways

MEXICO, D. F. — I did a piece the other day about the relative scarcity of American motion pictures here as against Mexican, Italian, German, French and British films.

It amounted to the end of the information, as far as I was concerned. But my bride, who like all actresses loses no time in hobnobbing with her kind no matter where including, probably, the Belgian Congo, came in from a dinner party the other night loaded to the eyebrows with information. Mexican films, as an industry, she said, are in tough trouble.

THE PICTURE isn't much different from Hollywood. The established studios are unable to keep going as big operations and the independent producers are little fellows dangling hopefully at one end of a string, the other end of which lies in a bank.

If the banker likes you, you get some money and make a picture. If he doesn't, you don't and you can go all over Mexico City describing yourself as a movie producer, but you won't be. You'll be a would-be producer shut out in the cold by a banker's whim.

The essential difference between the industry here and in California is the whim bit. In California, even a neophyte independent can get some bank money if he has — a good story, at least two marketable stars and a first-rate director. Here, all these assets plus even a friend in the distribution business won't guarantee you bank money for making your picture.

IT IS NOT deniable that the banks favor some and chill others with no apparent explanation. "Joe Chavez" can get money and "Joe Reyes" cannot, although Reyes may be able to make just as good a movie or better than can "Chavez." This unhappy state of affairs has the boys morose, jumpy and disgusted.

My bride took me to lunch with a producer who must be nameless for his own sake and future.

"I would say that the only deviation from this In or Out rule of whim," he said, "would be Maria Felix. If a producer has Maria signed to act for him, he could propose to make a movie about last night's Weather Forecast and get bank money. But how many movies can Maria make in a year?"

"I could go in with a Hemingway story, a big Hollywood director and no Maria and not get the time of day. I could go in with Maria and 20 words of a plot and get money. She is the touchstone."

MISS FELIX is a stunning young woman equipped with talent as well as beauty, and the producer probably is right. She is money in the bank, people at the ticket windows and profits for all. She made one picture a year or so ago which still is coining money around the world, winning honors, statuettes and critical cheers wherever it plays: "La Escondida."

There was a time when Miss Dolores Del Rio, who lives here in a state of avoiding direct sun at whatever cost or effort, once was in a similar position and even now is box office magic in Mexico.

But she is almost as elusive as Garbo and the thing about avoiding the sun is true. She simply will not work in any movie requiring her to act out in the open in the sun. She feels ageless as long as she is in the shade.

TECHNIQUES here are of a high order in all departments: camera work, lighting, sets, costuming, writing. It is writing of a kind designed mainly for Latin audiences, but it is extraordinarily good. The cameramen are brilliant artists.

But the squeeze is on. The favored get all they want, the others are squeezed out. The result is bad for an industry which was soaring and which was going farther and farther into world markets.

More Babies And Less Debt

WASHINGTON—Our esteemed Undersecretary of the Treasury, W. Randolph Burgess, is the man who manages our public debt. He does this stupendous job in good humor, by following the advice of the Red Queen in "Alice In Wonderland."

"By running very hard, we manage to stand still," Burgess informed the Senate Finance Committee.

He meant all those hundreds of billions of dollars, which he ain't got, are inclined to topple over on a fellow and crush him unless he's a truly agile juggler of red zeros with dollar signs in front.

BURGESS somehow managed to make our astronomical debt sound almost cheerful. Perhaps this was because of his decorative charts, which he displayed on and around a big, aluminum easel. These large pictures were designed to show who owed whom how much, and they did seem to indicate that, by and large, it is Uncle Sam who owes everybody else.

The first chart showed a green mountain with a steep cliff on one side; this indicated that the government momentarily is in debt $270,500,000,000.

His other charts included outlines of Washington monuments of varying heights in blue, yellow and pink; roller coasters painted green, pink, yellow and baby blue; black saw teeth (on a dull saw); mountain ranges of orange and lavender, and writhing snakes of red and blue. I don't believe I've ever seen a handsomer collection of charts.

THEY MADE sense, too, the way Burgess explained them. He was a tall man in a dark blue suit. He needed a haircut and he struck me as the kind of a fellow a taxpayer could believe. He's soon to resign and I do think we're going to miss him.

Back in 1946, said Burgess, the Federal Government's debt amounted to $1,832 for every American, babies included. Today each individual's share is only $1,581, but Burgess said he couldn't take any particular credit. The explanation simply is that a lot of babies have been born in the last 10 years.

Burgess said he did believe we ought to reduce the size of our debt and he's trying as hard as he can to do this, but his footrace seems to keep him on a treadmill.

LONDON—Britain's royal family is one of the greatest sales teams in the world.

Its garden party this week for 5,000 Americans—3,000 members of the American Bar Assn. and their relatives — was a demonstration of compelling advertising for Britain.

Two hours' exposure to Queen Elizabeth II, the Queen Mother, Prince Philip, the princess royal and the Duchess of Kent made some of the Americans ecstatic.

Cecil E. Burney, of Corpus Christi, Tex., called the Queen "a honey."

SAID CHARLES N. Rhyne, District of Columbia, new president of the Bar Assn.: "She's just like a Dresden doll. The Queen Mother is the most regal person I've ever seen in my life."

"And the prince," broke in Mrs. Rhyne, "He's just so handsome."

Said Mrs. Herbert Brownell, wife of the U. S. attorney general:

"She's the Queen magnificent. She's heavenly. And he—he's so handsome."

John Ranck, of Lancaster, Pa., smiled broadly.

"She's a real doll," he said, "and the prince is a charmer."

Mrs. Nora Snyder, of Kansas City, took a deep breath.

"I was just thrilled, absolutely thrilled to meet the prince."

The Americans who spilled out over the Buckingham Palace lawn made no secret of the fact that they came to see, meet and, if possible, talk to members of the royal family.

MRS. BENJAMIN Roth, of Youngstown, Ohio, told the Queen:

"We have a daughter who is just like you. People are always saying she could be your twin sister."

"A wonderful, wonderful family," nodded Judge Thornton G. Berry, of Welch, W. Va.

Palace officials selected in advance a number of Americans to be presented to the royal family. Others just introduced themselves.

Wave after wave of admiring Americans ignored the palace officials, broke ranks, surrounded the Queen, the prince and the Queen Mother.

There was only one disappointing feature — the absence of Princess Margaret.

A friend said she stayed away for fear the Americans, in their frank friendliness, might have asked Margaret too many questions.

WASHINGTON — Not often does Secretary of State John Foster Dulles betray any perturbation over his department's cultural export program. But the other day he heard of a couple of plays that had been shipped abroad under his imprimatur, and could not stifle a gentle explosion.

Mr. Dulles participated in a very high level conference on his cultural program for Europe. He inquired what manner of enlightenment he was sending to that backward continent and was informed that in recent weeks he and the American taxpayers had shipped the non-pastoral productions "Cat On A Hot Tin Roof" and "Damn Yankees" to the benighted savages of Britain, France, Germany and the Benelux countries.

The Secretary of State was so profoundly perturbed by this disclosure that he resorted to spelling. He demanded:

"What are we trying to export — 'S-E-X'?"

THE GOVERNMENT Printing Office is kind enough to send me a list of its new publications as they come off the press. I peruse the list of Uncle Sam's best-sellers avidly, but am torn by indecision. They all sound so alluring I can't make up my mind which to order.

A new list came in this morning. By nightfall I had narrowed my choice down to two, but there I stuck. Finally, I turned in desperation to a young lady named Mary-Ellen Fitzgerald, who happened to be in the vicinity, and said:

"Tell me, dear Miss Fitzgerald: If you wanted to curl up with a good book to-night, which of these would you select?"

"Manuel For Septic Tank Practice," or "Tests Of A Sprinkler System For Hot-Weather Hauling Of Live Hogs In Truck Trailers."

Unhesitatingly, Miss Fitzgerald declared she would prefer the latter. When I inquired why, she asked me what red-blooded American girl, on the threshold of young womanhood and yearning for romance, wasn't interested in hauling live hogs.

I decided to be guided by Miss Fitzgerald's advice, but then I began reading the latest circular from the Small Business Bureau, listing inventions I can manufacture and amass a fortune. Now I am torn again.

I can't make up my mind whether to become rich and arrogant by making a device for unwinding telephone cords, or an adjustable grip for bowling balls.

SENATOR J. William Fulbright says that a favorite American dish is fish and rice, so why not raise them together? He has introduced a bill to raise eatin' catfish in the rice paddies away down south.

Senator Fulbright says he's been informed that the rice farmers can grow 500 pounds of fish per acre, thus giving them a double crop for the price and labor of one. He avers that the fish can swim and grow fat in the water that covers the rice, and then be scooped up like cucumbers after the water is drained off.

As a clincher, the lawmaker says that Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson won't have to worry about surplus fish, the way he worries over surplus rice. Ez doesn't have to be concerned about fish. That's the concern of Secretary of the Interior Fred Seaton.

"The Secretary of Agriculture ought to thank me," remarked Senator Fulbright. "I've given another member of the cabinet something to worry about."

St. Mary's Hi Class Of '47 Holds Reunion Dinner, Picnic

Programs For Year Mapped By Home Unit

Members of the hostess committee of the American Home Group of the Woman's Civic Club were entertained by Mrs. Joseph M. Miller, chairman, at a luncheon at her home, 520 Fayette Street.

Programs for the coming year were mapped following the luncheon. "Home" will be the theme and speakers are to be presented throughout the year.

The group meets jointly with the Literature group and Art group each year and presents a program of general interest.

Attending were Mrs. Ralph Isminger, co-chairman, Mrs. Winfield I. Burton, Mrs. Harry Grimes, Mrs. Ernest Lindsay, Mrs. Ansel H. Matthews, Mrs. G. Louis Spoerl, Mrs. Lewis Curl, Mrs. Howard F. Radcliffe and Mrs. Luther Hutter Sr.

Corn Roast Listed By Tandem Club

Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Garland Chancy entertained members of the Tandem Club of Emmanuel Episcopal Church in the parish house a recent evening.

Guy Thompson presided at the business session and it was decided to hold a corn roast at his home, Baltimore Pike, in August, the date to be announced later. Flowers were sent to Mrs. James Sullivan who is a patient in Sacred Heart Hospital.

The Women's Guild of Holy Cross Episcopal Church will hold a meeting at the parish hall tomorrow at 7:30 p. m.

The 1947 Class of St. Mary's High School celebrated its tenth anniversary with a dinner at the Fort Cumberland Hotel, with covers laid for twelve.

The class colors of blue and white were carried out in the decorations, favors and flower centerpiece. Each member was presented with a white rose.

A prize was presented to Mrs. Anita Nevy Karwacki, of New Orleans, La., for traveling the farthest distance to attend.

A short business session was held and Mrs. Dorothy Danahay Minke was elected chairman for a future reunion, planned for 1962.

A "Remember When" period featured the entertainment and pictures were shown of the various members and their families.

The dinner concluded with the singing of the school song, "Dear Old School."

Attending, besides Mrs. Karwacki and Mrs. Minke, were Mrs. Patricia Goheli, Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Patricia Carney Helmsletter, Mechanicsville; Mrs. Eileen Brinker Steele, Frostburg; Mrs. Patricia O'Donnell Jacobs, Mrs. Mary Nies Koelker, Mrs. Helene Smith Blake, Mrs. Jeannine Mock Hare, Mrs. Louise Carpnachia Beall, Mrs. Almeda Beck Knieriem and Mrs. Dorothy Weisenmiller Squires, all of Cumberland.

Yesterday at Minke's pool, 14 members, their husbands and families held a picnic.

Personals

Miss Vera Elaine MacKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Monroe MacKenzie, 720 Louisiana Avenue, is attending her seventh year at the Lutheran Leadership Training Camp, Newark, Arendtsville, Pa. She will return home Sunday.

Miss Linda Wilson, Bowman's Addition, is a patient in Sacred Heart Hospital.

William Sowers, Valley Road, is confined to his home with a broken foot.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stewart and Mrs. Florence Brant and son Gary, city, and Mrs. Homer Wilison, Williams Road, returned from Wilmore, Kentucky, where they visited the latter's son, Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Brant and family.

Reunion Held By Williams Family

Descendants of the late Benjamin Williams family of Zihlman held a reunion Sunday at the Frostburg Swimming Pool.

Mrs. Ida Hayman, Frostburg, last surviving member of the original family, was presented an award. Games and prizes featured the entertainment for the children.

Roy Bowman was elected president, Mrs. Joseph Kuhlman, vice president, Mrs. Helen Evans, secretary and Joseph Kuhlman, treasurer.

It was decided to hold the 1958 reunion at the same place on the last Sunday in July.

There were 34 families represented and out of town guests came from Augusta, Georgia; Liberty, Pa.; Vienna, Va.; Silver Spring, Washington and Pittsburgh.

W.S.C.S. of Fairview Avenue Methodist Church will hold a rummage sale tomorrow from 1 until 3 p. m. in the church basement.

FAMILY AT HOT SPRINGS—Mr. and Mrs. James E. Eisenberger, 1807 Holland Street, and their two daughters, are shown with Mrs. Eisenberger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown of Ligonier, Pa., on the grounds of the Homestead Hotel, Hot

New Director Baptist Choir Announced

A picnic supper and practice were held by the choir of the First Baptist Church a recent evening at Constitution Park. It was announced that M. Bing Elliott, who will teach music at Mt. Savage High School, has been secured as choir director.

Attending were Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Prevatte, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Weston, Mr. and Mrs. John Reckley, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Oberholzer, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Young, Mrs. Howard Graham, Mrs. Gilbert Markwood, Miss Mary Weese, Joan Markwood, Bruceanna Young, Kenneth, Deborah and Jay Weston, Stephen and Dale Reckley, Richard Prevatte and Rodney Oberholzer.

Special Game Won By Mrs. Aronson, Mrs. Pariser

The special game of the Potomac Valley Bridge Club Tuesday night was won by Mrs. Harvey Aronson and Mrs. Irwin Pariser. It was played at the Woman's Civic Club house.

Second place winners were Mrs. Loraine Eisenberg and Mrs. Mary Deal. Mrs. Julia Lewis and James Long were third and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Douglas and Miss Ellen Servicey and A. D. Heacox tied for fourth place.

The annual Country Club Championship Game of the Western Maryland Bridge Association will be played today at 8 p. m.

The W.S.C.S. of Zion Methodist Church, Bedford Road, will hold a covered dish supper at the church Friday at 6 p. m. It will be followed by the regular meeting at 7:30 p. m.

Atomic Cook Enjoys Job

By OLGA CURTIS
INS Women's Editor

CHICAGO (INS)—The nation's first atomic cook is a pretty, 29-year-old redhead from Iowa who enjoys broiling year-old bacon and baking three-month-old potatoes.

Jane Davidsaver thinks her unique job of cooking atomically irradiated foods for Uncle Sam is "wonderful."

She has only one small gripe: "Other women won't be cooking irradiated foods for another 10 years or so, and I'd love to show off my cooking. But nobody ever tells me how good it tastes, and I can't take home samples."

In fact, everything she cooks comes out of a locked vault—and it takes the signatures of a couple of atomic scientists to get it out. The vault is at the Chicago headquarters of the quartermaster food and container institute for the armed forces, where Jane works as a $75-a-week government home economist.

Her assignment, for more than a year, has been to cook and evaluate irradiated food—foods treated by atomic rays to last indefinitely without refrigeration.

Jane has cooked 300 rashers of bacon, 600 potatoes, 20 pounds of shrimp, countless pork chops and steaks, strawberries, green peas, carrots, even rolls—all of them irradiated.

She's the inventor of "David-saver white wine sauce for stewed irradiated chicken," which Army Secretary Wilbur Brucker liked so much. He cleaned his plate.

"I have even baked an irradiated pumpkin pie," laughs Jane. "It was easy. Irradiated bacon is the most fun and the most trouble. Never cooks the same, and sometimes it just won't get crisp."

Jane's cooking results are carefully written down for government study. So are all her ingredients, and the exact cooking method used.

Since Jane works in a kitchen equipped with gas, electric and even a GI gasoline field range, 30 kinds of pots and 200 different kitchen tools, each cooking assignment involves a great deal of measuring and writing.

"At home I'm the 'pinch of this and a pinch of that' kind of cook," she laughs. "I never measure anything and I taste everything."

"That tasting is a habit I can't break. I nibble at all the irradiated foods, too."

The girl who now serves test meals to generals and atomic scientists "fell in love with pots and pans as a little girl."

"My mother taught me cooking, and I've always loved it. But I never expected to do this kind of cooking—they just handed me some irradiated food one day and I've been working with it ever since."

Water shortage is a major problem in the U. S., says Henry J. Vaux, dean of the School of Forestry, University of California. Increasing use of water in industry and agriculture causes the dilemma.

The Past Chiefs Club of Manhattan Temple 8, Pythian Sisters, will meet Friday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Fay Lee Burner, 764 Maryland Avenue.

The annual Sturtz family reunion will be held Sunday at Shawnee Park, Mann's Choice, Pa.

About one third of all passengers between London and Paris travel by air.

SP-3 Robert R. Matlick Will Wed Miss Armijo Saturday

The marriage of Miss June Armijo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Armijo, of Willets, Calif., to Sp/3 Robert R. Matlick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Matlick, 533 Patterson Avenue will take place Saturday.

The ceremony will be solemnized in the post chapel of the Presidio, San Francisco.

Cumberland will be included in the wedding trip the couple will take, visiting the bridegroom's parents.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Willets High School and is employed as a secretary by Kaiser Engineers, Oakland, Calif.

Sp/3 Matlick is a graduate of Allegheny High School and Ringling School of Art, Sarasota, Fla. He is stationed with the H.H.A. Group at Fort Barry, Sausalito, Calif.

Jeffrey Grogg Feted On Birthday

43 Children Complete Red Cross Swim Course

Courses in swimming have been completed by two classes in the Red Cross program and they are eligible for certificates, according to Miss Martha Miller, volunteer Red Cross instructor at Constitution Park pool.

The classes included a group of beginners and a group of intermediates.

In the final tests, the beginners were graded on breath holding, rhythmic breathing, prone float, prone glide, back float, back glide, kick glide front and back, arm stroke, finning, combined stroke front and back, turning over, leveling off, jump into water of various depths, plain front dive and other swimming demonstrations.

Of 73 youngsters who started the beginner course, a total of 35 made satisfactory progress in the two weeks of training and were graduated, Miss Miller said.

In the intermediate group, where 19 enrolled, a total of eight completed the course satisfactorily and graduated. This group was trained in the breast stroke, scissors, flutter, side-arm and hand-over-hand strokes, elementary back stroke swim for 50 yards, selected stroke swim for 100 yards, turning, floating for at least one minute, sculling 10 yards, treading water at least 30 seconds, underwater swimming, standing front dive, running jump and a five-minute swim.

Miss Miller explains that even though a student fails to pass the full course, the training gives him considerable knowledge of swimming, instills confidence and teaches the youngsters what to do and what not to do in the water. Safety is emphasized throughout the entire program, and the students who fail are at liberty to repeat the training if they desire.

Graduating beginners include: Mike Hammersmith, 429 Forester Avenue; Ronda Herath, 468 Columbia Street; Raymond Green, 805 Elmwood Lane; Robert Madden, 515 Riehl Avenue; Helen Meagher, 130 Columbia Street; Rita Melvin, 466 Columbia Street; Richard Waingold, 1208 Bedford Street; Alvin Herath, 460 Columbia Street; Margaret McGann, 507 Dilley Street; Bernard Morrissey, 525 North Mechanic Street; Jerry Blose, 825 Shawnee Avenue.

Rosalie George, 309 North Centre Street; Jan Carolyn, 619 Shriver Avenue; Vivian Santore, Baltimore Pike; Marlene Foreman, 86 Valley Street; Mary Ann McGann, 507 Dilley Street; Susan Miller, 209 Columbia Street; Joan Dolan, 1701 Bedford Street; Maureen Rudolph, 524 Welch Avenue.

Marsha Purucker, 1501 Bedford Street; James VanMeter, 309 Footer Place; Donald Bradford, 714 Lincoln Street; Lois Murray, 1018 Myrtle Street; Sally Stewart, 410 Footer Place; Carolyn Zucker, 1102 Frederick Street; Donna Bradfield, 714 Lincoln Street; Jackie Zucker, 1102 Frederick Street.

Mark Mackert, 420 Franklin Street; Stanley Kline, 308 Piedmont Avenue; Leonard Kline, 308 Piedmont Avenue; Rebecca Krampf, 457 Columbia Street; Lynn Hale, 506 Warren Street; Brooke Davis, 724 Bedford Street; Tom Clay, 716 Frederick Street; and Helen Bittinger, 406 Footer Place.

The intermediate graduates include:

Ronnie Yutzy, 319 Pulaski Street; Billy VanHorn, 611 Piedmont Avenue; Terry Carolyn, 619 Shriver Avenue; Judith Meagher, 130 Columbia Street; David Paul, 510 Regina Avenue; Robert Klinger, 1015 Myrtle Street; Lavern Kifner, Bedford Road; and Dick Paulman, LaVale.

Miss Miller, who will attend Hood College in the fall, is, according to Mrs. George W. Legge, executive secretary of the Red Cross here, one of the best and most qualified instructors in the area. She attended the Red Cross training course earlier this year at Camp Lutheryn National Aquatic School, Prospect, Pa.

The local swimming program is conducted in conjunction with the City Recreation Department, and most of the children who participated enrolled through the various playgrounds in the city.

Red Cross Officials Cite Rescue By Local Resident

Two letters of commendation to the Allegany County Chapter American Red Cross for its work in education in swimming and life-saving have been received by Mrs. George W. Legge, executive secretary.

Both communications were prompted as a result of the successful rescue by John Morris of George Hare this summer, at Constitution Park Pool.

A letter from W. F. Griffith, director of field service for the Eastern Area American National Red Cross.

Griffith pointed out that his training was probably a factor in the saving of this life, and that Morris should be commended for his prompt and efficient action, along with Joel Smith, who assisted him. Griffith said "his alertness and devotion to duty" are commendable.

The second communication was received from Paul C. Grubb, director of Camp Lutheryn School.

About 80 per cent of an automobile's weight is steel.

Driver Pilots Brakeless Truck Down Mountain

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A truck driver who skillfully drove his brakeless vehicle at 85 miles an hour down a curving mountain road without denting a fender said today he's mighty lucky to be alive.

State Trooper Reu Silbaugh, a man with nerves to match those of Glenn Switzer of Fairmont, Neb., agreed with Switzer. So did nearly a score of motorists who scattered out of the path of the truck, carrying 40,000 pounds of sugar from Baltimore to Chicago. Switzer, 28, had just started to descend the three-mile Summit Mountain hill on Route 40 when his clutch failed. Then his brakes failed. By this time, he said, he was "really rollin'."

Just then, Trooper Silbaugh came along on routine patrol—in the opposite lane of traffic. He quickly swung his car around, sped past Switzer's rolling truck and kept his siren roaring. Motorists scattered.

"I was thinking about jumping a couple of times but then I looked at the speedometer," Switzer related. "The last time I looked I was rocking along about 85 miles an hour and I just said to myself: 'Man, you're crazy if you jump.' So I decided to ride her out."

Trooper Silbaugh breezed into the little community of Hopwood at the bottom of the hill and had everyone out of the way when the tractor-trailer roared into town.

"I had brushed my truck against the hillside a couple of times and slowed her down to about 70 miles an hour," Switzer said. "When I got into Hopwood there was a little grade and that slowed me up. Then I saw a muddy path alongside of the road and I just pulled over and stopped."

Switzer, father of five children, collapsed and was treated for shock. "Hell, I was scared, but I'll be driving my truck again," he said. "Nothing like this ever happened before. The trooper told me I was damn lucky and I agree. That guy did a wonderful job in clearing the path for me."

Keplinger Clan Reunion Staged Near Maysville

PETERSBURG — The annual Keplinger reunion was held at Falls Assembly of God Church near Maysville with over 400 in attendance. The meeting was called to order by the president, Myrtle K. Park, after which a program was rendered with the following parties taking part: Rev. Donald Moses, Rev. W. A. Wilkins, Cornea and Karne Markwood, Angie and Juanita Berg, Betty, Helen and Irene Groves, Mrs. Ila Judy, Judy Love, Martha Keplinger, Mary and Sonny Keplinger, Esther Sechrist and Donald Litman.

H. T. Park delivered the address on his trip in scouting to Valley Forge, Pa. Rev. Norman Love, Corning, N. Y., also spoke. Memorials were read by the president for the following relatives who died during the past year: Rev. Charles Self, Fort Ashby; Mrs. Mildred Feaster, Lafayette, Ind.; Lester Judy and Mrs. George Hall, Petersburg; Martin Evans, Oldtown; Mrs. Osa Barger, Maysville; Tressia Keplinger, Fort Ashby; and Frank Evans, Goshen, Ind. Songs were offered by Misses Betty and Helen Groves. A picnic dinner was served on the grounds at noon.

Gifts were presented as follows: Oldest married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Keplinger, Lahmansville, 50 years; youngest married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Vandevender, Franklin; oldest man present, William C. Keplinger, 82, Maysville; oldest woman present, Mrs. Rosetta Keplinger Park, 82, Needmore; youngest baby present; Homer Keplinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Keplinger, Oldtown; youngest baby girl, Bonnie Lou Hesse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hesse, Jordan Run; largest family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Veach, Fort Ashby; family traveling longest distance, Rev. and Mrs. Norman Love and daughters, Corning, N. Y.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. C. H. Park, Petersburg, president; John G. Keplinger, Maysville, vice president; Miss Esther Sechrist, Maysville, secretary and Mrs. Clara Sage, Petersburg, treasurer. The 1958 reunion will be held the last Sunday in July at the same place.

Seventeen of the 20 categories of commerce surveyed for the publication showed improvement in the first six months this year, as compared to the same period of 1956.

Among four natural resources listed, only coal scored a production gain, an increase of 1.6 per cent to 78,195,000 tons for the half year. Output of natural gas, crude oil and lumber lagged slightly behind 1956.

Morgan Crowned W. Va. State Broiler King

MOOREFIELD—Webster Morgan, Ronceverte, Greenbrier County, and his neighbor, Leroy Baker, also of Ronceverte, were named last night as top winners in the Pro and Semi-Pro Leagues, respectively, of the West Virginia Broiler Project. The results were announced by Ted R. Hash, Extension poultryman at West Virginia University, at the annual convention of the West Virginia Poultry Association now in progress here.

As leader of the Pro League's honor roll Morgan, who was Broiler King last year, retained his title as West Virginia's crown king for 1957. He was crowned by Dr. Homer Patrick, head of the poultry husbandry department at West Virginia University. Morgan received an engraved mantle clock and Baker received an engraved wrist watch as awards for leading their respective leagues.

Four other growers were named to honor rolls in each league, and received engraved pocketbooks as awards. The alphabetical listing of these winners is as follows:

Pro-League — (over 5,000-bird capacity)—Brown Campbell, Dumore, Pocahontas County; Delmer O. Dodrill, Monteville, Randolph County; Milton Perry, White Sulphur Springs, Greenbrier County; and A. L. Wiley, Peterstown, Monroe County.

Semi-Pro League—(less than 5,000-bird capacity)—Mrs. Raymond Hines, Moorefield, Hardy County; Otis Weikle, Greenville, Monroe County; S. A. Weikle, Wayside, Monroe County and L. S. Williams, Trout, Greenbrier County.

Selections for the annual honor rolls were based on records of all broilers sold from the farms during the period of June 1, 1956 and May 31, 1957. All of these growers made the monthly honor rolls two or more times during the year. Morgan marketed four broods during this period and with all four broods.

Commenting on the 10 top growers, Hash pointed out that the 10 individuals produced enough broilers to supply the annual fryer chicken needs of the cities of Morgantown, Elkins, Lewisburg and Moorefield. This assumption is based on the 1950 census and the average per capita consumption of broilers for 1956.

The 10 top growers named to the honor rolls marketed 215,039 broilers during the year and this represented a livability of 99.2 per cent of birds started as day-old chicks. The birds averaged 3.71 pounds per bird, and had an average feed conversion ratio of 2.38 pounds of feed required to produce one pound of meat.

"The 1957 record was superior in all respects to that of the 1956 honor rolls," Hash stated, "even though it covered a five-month longer period. Results of the 1957 broiler project clearly indicate that West Virginia continues to effectively compete in this modern broiler production business."

The project is jointly sponsored by the West Virginia Poultry Association, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and West Virginia University.

Junior Camp For Boys, Girls Slated At Romney Center

ROMNEY—A camp for junior boys and girls, aged 10-11, will be held at the Peterkin Conference Center here Monday through Saturday under the sponsorship of the Christian Education Committee of Winchester Presbytery. Rev. Robert D. Goshorn, pastor of Berryville (Va.) Presbyterian Church, is camp director and Rev. John C. Livingston, pastor of Sunnyside Baptist Presbyterian Church near Winchester, Va., is his assistant.

Other members of the camp staff are Keith Brockman of Charles Town; Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Anderton of Springfield; Miss Ada Glass Baker, Presbytery worker of near Winchester; Mrs. Harold Barr of Charles Town; Miss Carolyn Crampton, director of music, First Presbyterian Church, Winchester; Miss Frances Funk, Barryville, and Miss Patricia Boyd of Kearneysville.

Rev. P. Carey Adams, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Romney, is camp manager and registrar.

It will be necessary to operate the Junior Camp on Daylight Saving Time since the Peterkin Conference Center operates on that time.

Boys and girls from the 63 churches of Winchester Presbytery, composed of a section of Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania are expected to attend this camp.

County Group Outlines Park Regulations

PETERSBURG — Miss Flora Jean Alt has been employed to supervise youngsters using Grant Recreation Park between the hours of 2 to 4 each afternoon, except Sundays.

The Homemakers Club of Petersburg is planning to have a shuffleboard built in the park and the project was approved by the park committee.

Due to the fact that quite a bit of misconduct and vandalism has been committed, the committee unanimously adopted a set of rules and regulations to be observed by those using the park. These rules and regulations are to be posted at various conspicuous places in the park. Following is a list of the rules and regulations:

- (1) No beer or alcoholic drinks to be taken into the park;
- (2) no gambling of any kind permitted;
- (3) no profane language permitted;
- (4) no destruction of property;
- (5) speed limit 15 miles per hour;
- (6) cars and other vehicles to be driven on driveways only and (7) no one allowed in the park after 9 p. m., except by special permission of the park committee.

Any violators of the rules and regulations will be prosecuted.

Columbus, Ohio, is the world's largest city named in honor of Christopher Columbus.

Louis W. Hicks Appointed Westernport Town Clerk

WESTERNPORT — Louis W. Hicks, a retired accountant of the Luke mill of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company was appointed part time clerk of the town of Westernport at the regular meeting of Mayor Okey E. Michael and Commissioners last evening.

Hicks, who served as acting clerk of the town from January 30, 1956 to May 15 of the same year, will begin his new duties Monday, working a half day five days a week, Monday through Fridays.

George P. DeWitt, who served as acting clerk from May 15, 1956 to date, was not a candidate for the part time position. Mrs. Katherine G. Dailey, town clerk, who had been on leave of absence due to ill health from January 30, 1956, returned to part time basis last May 1 and assumed her full duties today.

The applications of Mrs. Mary M. Shade, Mrs. Henrietta Kazlo and Mrs. Norma E. Springer for the parttime clerk position were read.

Horace P. Whitworth Sr., town attorney, conferred with the Mayor and Council about several legal matters, one of which was securing rights to run a six-inch water line up over the hill from the corner of Main Street and Oakview Drive to the corner of Howard Street and Philo Avenue.

The town wants to acquire additional ground for putting up steps for the public at some time in the future. Attorney Whitworth stated the ground belonged to the heirs of Mrs. Nancy Whitworth, but though it could be acquired.

A communication from Whitworth called attention to how the duties of the town attorney have increased in the past 40 years, and the town's desire to have him at council meetings one night a month. He is paid $100 a year as a retaining fee and $10 for attending meetings.

A communication from the State Roads Commission stating that the town will receive $1,835.68 for its share from gasoline tax and $944.15 from automobile license fees for a total of $2,779.83, was read by Mrs. Dailey.

Mayor Michael stated that income from parking meters for the past week amounted to $77.77.

Matthew Mathias, Frostburg, has been employed to survey elevation for the sewer line at Foundry Alley which will be emptied into Georges Creek.

Complaints have been received of motorists speeding on Philo Avenue, illegal parking on Wood Street and a car being parked without any license on the vehicle.

Relative to providing water to Horse Rock Corporation, a new housing development of the Luke Mill of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company, the contract as now prepared gives authority to each party to discontinue service in 90 days. The company states the time should be longer. It was decided to study the contract in full and then discuss its various features before making any changes.

Joseph and Stanton McIntyre, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McIntyre, are vacationing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Brock in Columbus, Ohio.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams were Mr. and Mrs. William Williams and daughter, Ruth, of Madison, Ky.; Miss Jennie Williams, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Williams and children of Alexandria, Va.; Paul Richard Williams and Dr. Ernest Cutcheon, Silver Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graney, Winchester, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reid and children, of Baltimore, visited Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wilson.

Mrs. Ross Gowans underwent surgery at Memorial Hospital, Cumberland.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Hiack of Butler, Pa., spent their vacation at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Elwood Carey here. Mrs. Carey is a daughter of the Hiacks.

Attending the Broadwater-Richard wedding reception at Allegany Grove from here were Mrs. Wade H. Broadwater, Russell Broadwater, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Michael, Mrs. Verda L. Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Edison Broadwater and children, Mrs. Dewey Llewellyn and children, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Beeman and children and Mrs. Robert Weber and great grandchildren.

Vincent Broadwater, Cleveland, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Broadwater.

Teachers and students of Pekin Community Church Sunday School held their annual picnic at Swager's Dam. About 65 were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mathey of La Plata visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Barnard and family.

George McDonald, Sewickley, Pa., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bailey and family.

Mrs. William R. Harvey has been requested to show movie slides of her son, William, as a Methodist missionary. Pictures will be shown at Trinity Methodist Church in Pekin tomorrow at 8 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Broadwater and children of Oakland visited Mr. and Mrs. Troxell Warnick.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Broadwater, Bridgeton, N. J., are spending some time with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Broadwater, Moscow.

Mrs. Owen Stanley and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Neat and family of Monessen, Pa., visited the Neats.

Owen Stanley has accepted a position with the Pittsburgh Steel Company at Allentown, Pa.

About one-fourth of the average family food budget is spent for meat.

Moorefield Riding Event Set Saturday

MOOREFIELD—Seventeen riders have entered the old fashioned riding tournament which will be held Saturday at 1:30 p. m. (EST) near the high school. The contest is sponsored by the Moorefield Volunteer Fire Company and will be directed by M. A. Bean and W. C. Harper.

Riders will be dressed in white with a county color stripe and sash. Lances will be nine feet long and the poles will be 90 feet apart. The knights will ride three times at one and one-half inch rings and ties will be decided with one inch, three-quarter inch and one-half inch rings.

Prizes and trophies will be awarded for the queen, first maid, second maid, third maid and horsemanship.

Competing in the tournament will be George E. Fisher, Knight of Just For Fun; William N. Fisher, Knight of Would If I Could; John Waddy, Knight of Fort George; George W. Fisher, Knight of Never Before; John Cowman, Knight of South Fork; Junior Bean, Knight of Inkerman; Benick McNeill, Knight of Old Fields; Bill Harper, Knight of Green Valley; Courtney Pratt, Knight of Hardy; Ralph Pratt, Knight of Clay Hill; Adam Fisher, Knight of Silver Bend; Oran Wolfe, Knight of Old Hampshire; Maxwell Whipp, Morris Whipp, Ronald Patterson, Jack Smith and R. R. Kuykendall.

The tournament is a revival of the contests held in the South Branch Valley before the advent of the automobile. According to legend, one of the most famous tournament riders was Turner Ashby, Fauquier County, Va., later one of the South's most brilliant generals in the Civil War.

In an article, "Modern Knights of the Turney," published in the West Virginia Review in September, 1931, C. B. Allen says in part, "A short distance away, men, women, and children are massed in two walls of holiday-seeking humanity a few feet from either side of a dusty bridge path, which a thousand hoof-bats have worn in the sod of the glade. Like wickets for a giants' croquet game, three sets of wooden uprights and cross-bars bracket this track at 30-foot intervals."

"Down the course and through the wickets with a thunder of flying feet speeds a blooded charger. His bare-headed rider gracefully poises a long, steel-shod spear at the level of his eyes. His unwavering gaze is concentrated on three perfectly aligned rings suspended by rigid wires from wooden targets nailed to the wicket cross-bars. At each set of poles there is a muffled but distinctly audible 'click' and with the third a roar of applause bursts from the throng."

"This latter day knight of the chivalric lists, this Twentieth Century Ivanhoe, has toppled no feudal foe in the mad onrush of his steed or by the impact of his formidable lance, but he scored a triumph, nevertheless. As he checks his horse's flight, turns and canters back with his spear carried proudly at the trail, all may see that the three cord wrapped steel rings at which he aimed are nested safely far back on its slender point. His rivals for the right to place a crown upon the brow of one who shall be named 'Queen of Love and Beauty' in this tournament must now survive or perish by their ability to duplicate the feat of skill and horsemanship which he has just performed."

Dahmer Motel Sale Amounts To $140,547

FRANKLIN, W. Va. — One of the largest auction sales ever conducted in Pendleton County was held when the Dahmer Motel and Restaurant property in north Franklin was sold by special commissioners appointed by Pendleton County Circuit Court. The total purchase price for all property sold amounted to $140,547.

The real estate was first offered in parcels, and later as a whole. When offered in parcels the total bids amounted to $109,125, but when offered in one unit the high bid was $133,500.

The real estate included a service station, motel, 8 dwelling houses, 14 cabins and a total of six acres of land. The purchaser was G. R. Ours, distributor of American Gasoline Products of Petersburg.

In addition to the real estate, personal property including a house trailer, equipment in the Coffee Shoppe, four motor vehicles and household furniture was sold for a total of $7,047.

Disbursement Report Given

FRANKLIN, W. Va. — Running Pendleton County was a $70,501.32 business during the year ending June 30, 1957, an examination of the county financial statement reveals. This is slightly less than the previous year's disbursements.

Expenditures are handled in four separate funds which are administered by the County Court. They include (1) the General County Fund, (2) Justices Fines Fund, (3) Dog Fund, and (4) General Relief Fund.

The largest of the four categories is the General County Fund which provides the moneys used to operate the general county business and provide the customary services. Payments out of this fund during the year amounted to $31,699.61.

The Justices Fines Fund shows an expenditure of $3,890.08; the Dog Fund had disbursements of $1,163.00 and $13,748.63 was distributed out of the General Relief Fund.

Moneys in the General County Fund come primarily from direct taxes. Local taxes were the source of $25,828.46, and $14,137.72 came from the State Auditor for taxes on public utilities in the county. The balance of the monies comes from earnings of county officials and miscellaneous receipts.

The county ended the year with a balance of $12,174.50 to its credit in the General County Fund, which is 998.53 less than the balance of $13,173.03 which was on hand at the end of the previous year.

British Sailor Has Ambition Realized

NORFOLK, Va. — Jimmy Whyte, of Fife, Scotland, a sailor on the British aircraft carrier Ark Royal, realized his ambition on the visit of his ship to this port.

Jimmy wanted to ride in an American police car with the lights flashing and sirens screaming. On the first night ashore he told police about it. He rode with two officers, S. E. Cherry and E. W. Farr. He liked it and they liked him, so Jimmy spent every night of his four-night liberty with them in the police car.

Health Center Report Given At Midland

MIDLAND — All expenses to date for operation of the Midland Medical Center have been paid, according to reports submitted at a recent meeting of the Medical Center Committee.

David Williams, president, who presided at the regular session, said contributions received from the following organizations helped "clear the slate": Midland Fire Company and its Auxiliary; Tioga Tribe, Order of Red Men and Pocahontas; Women's Society of Christian Service of Grace Methodist Church; Sodality of St. Joseph Catholic Church; Midland Parent-Teacher Association; Myrtle Temple 2, Pythian Sisters; Midland Homemakers Club and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Besides Williams, other officers are Thomas H. Taylor, vice president; John Devlin Jr., secretary; James Blair, treasurer and James Bampton.

Nurses aides are Mrs. Ethel Ellicott, Mrs. Gertrude Smith, Mrs. Helen Manley and Mrs. Pearl Blair.

The committee expressed its appreciation to Dr. Frank T. Harter of Frostburg for his continued cooperation, to Mrs. Mary Whitfield, RN, of Lonaconing; Mrs. Margaret Hanson, RN, of Frostburg, and Miss Margaret Poole of Cumberland for their assistance at the several clinics held at the center.

Williams observed that the center needs writing paper, blinds, curtains, paint, soap, wax, tacks, paper cups, paper towels, a mop, a broom and several other miscellaneous items.

Approximately 10,000,000 square miles of the earth's surface is covered by deserts.

FAIR ATTRACTION — Miss Jean Shepard, recording artist from Pauls Valley, Okla., will appear during the Garrett County Fair at McHenry, August 15 and 16, with the Grand Ole Opry. The fair will be held August 13-17.

Mayor, Council To Meet Monday At Frostburg

FROSTBURG—The first council meeting of Mayor and City Commissioners for the month of August will be held Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the council chambers.

Wall Street Hears

NEW YORK — (INS) — Wall Street Hears:

St. Joseph lead second quarter net is expected to have exceeded the first quarter's $1.01 a share, which would be substantially above the 78 cents earned in the second quarter of 1956.

McGraw-Edison earnings this year are believed running 15 to 20 per cent above the $3.06 reported last year.

Manning-Maxwell & Moore expects sales this year will touch about $57 million from $45.8 million last year and profits should exceed the $3.17 a share reported for 1956, although not by as much as was indicated by the first half's $2.09 net.

Full year results for Skelly Oil, according to Reynolds & Company, "should easily top the $5.93 reported in 1956."

Cement producers are likely to raise prices by late fall as a result of the present round of wage increases being negotiated and other material and labor cost increases in the last year.

Imports of Canadian oil likely to show no significant effect as result of new import directive.

Pennor & Aroostook Railroad boosted June operating revenues above a year ago for the first monthly gain since January thanks to increased potato shipments. But heavier expenses cut net to below a year ago. First half net was about $4.26 a share vs. $6.43 a year ago.

Retail demand for tires is reported holding up well. Replacement business usually follows the trend of new car sales by about two years, which means the cars sold during the '55 boom now need new tires.

Pittsburgh Plate First Half Sales Hit Record

Record first half sales of $311,087,322 were reported by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, an increase of six percent over sales for the first six months of 1956 of $292,518,948.

Net earnings during the period were $29,239,370, or $2.95 per share, after income tax provisions of $30,182,296. This represents a decline of over three percent from earnings of $30,258,083, or $3.06 per share, after provision of $33,899,892 for income taxes for the comparable period of 1956.

Sales reported for the second quarter were $160,186,668, highest for any quarter in the company's history. For the second quarter of 1956, sales amounted to $143,856,319.

Second quarter earnings were $16,013,078, or $1.61 per share, after provision of $16,649,827 for income taxes. This compares with earnings of $14,553,312, or $1.47 per share for the second quarter of 1956. Tax provisions during the comparable period of 1956 were $16,176,266. All figures are based on 9,898,496 shares of stock outstanding on June 30, 1957.

David G. Hill, president, reported that sales of both paint and glass through the firm's manufacturing division increased during the last quarter as compared with the first three months of 1957. Glass sales to the automobile industry were in a seasonal decline during the second quarter. Paint trade sales picked up substantially during the period after lagging during the early months of the year, according to Hill.

Window or sheet glass business depressed during the early months of the year due to a cut-back in housing starts and heavy foreign imports, is showing some improvement.

Columbia - Southern Chemical Corporation, a leading producer of chlorine, alkalis, and related chemical products, established sales records during the second quarter. A 72-day strike at the wholly-owned subsidiary's plant at Lake Charles, La., was terminated early in April.

City Marking Truck Route For U. S. 220

Detour Effective During Work On Downtown Bridge

City officials today checked the route through the city which trucks must traverse while the new Baltimore Street bridge over Wills Creek is under construction.

Making the tour was Chief of Police R. Emmett Flynn, Lt. Raymond R. Johnson of Police Department's Traffic Bureau, and Charles R. Nuzum, city engineer.

Signs designating the route for heavy vehicles will be placed and kept covered until the Western Maryland Railway Company completes work on the temporary crossing, Chief Flynn said. Once that work is completed, and blacktop laid, the temporary span will be placed in use.

The temporary bridge will be closed to heavy trucks and buses, the chief said, and southbound traffic on U. S. Route 220 will be directed to the following route:

In Bedford Road to Henderson Avenue, west to Valley Street, across Valley Street to Cumberland Street, to Allegany Street, and out Fayette Street to the Dingle Circle.

Northbound traffic on 220 will be directed on the above route in reverse, Chief Flynn said.

Trucks from the South End who traverse Park Street will be directed to use Henderson Avenue to the West Side, and the portion of the avenue from Baltimore Street to Glenn Street will be two-way while the new bridge is being constructed, the chief explained.

Trucks using South Centre Street from South Cumberland will be warned by signs at the Baltimore Street intersection that no left turn will be permitted for West Side traffic. The trucks can use either the Market Street or Valley Street bridges, Flynn said.

Police Commissioner William V. Keegan said the Maryland State Roads Commission will be furnished with the temporary Route 220 detour since that organization puts out a bulletin for trucking firms that informs them of detours within its system.

This will help alleviate confusion, Keegan said.

43-Year-Old Man Gets License To Wed Woman, 70

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon at the Court House to a Springfield couple with a switch in the usual May-December type wedding.

The bridegroom-to-be is Elzy Boyer, 43, a laborer who has never been married before. The bride-to-be is Bessie Lee Hose, 70, who has been married and divorced.

Persons who obtain marriage license in Allegany County must have the ceremony performed by a minister within the county limits. So far, no return from a minister has been returned noting that the marriage has taken place.

Playlot Queen Will Be Crowned

Melva Richard will be crowned Mapleside playground queen in ceremonies at the playlot today at 8 p. m. with Sandra Sonner, last year's queen, officiating.

Also scheduled today at 7:30 p. m. is an on-wheels parade.

Other queens named in voting this week were Jeneen Rowley, pre-teen queen; and Donna Bittner, tiny tot queen.

Winners in the recent pet show are Steve Hidey, largest; Jimmy Footen, smallest; Leta Hudson, largest collection of buttons; and prettiest; Allen Jeffries, most unusual; and Gary Orndorff, best trained. Judges were Jeneen Rowley and Barbara Lynn.

Maryland Surplus Hits Whopping $22,972,543

BALTIMORE (AP) — Maryland ended fiscal 1957 with a whopping general fund surplus of $22,972,543.01, more than three million dollars above estimates of the surplus last April.

The surplus included $5,294,209.34 turned back to the treasury by State departments and agencies. State Comptroller J. Millard Tawes called this the largest amount he could remember ever being reverted. It was $2,434,193.54 more than surplus estimators had figured.

The general fund surplus was $3,246,732.54 over what had been estimated in April. The increase included $2,434,193.54 more in reversions than had been anticipated, $175,911.09 more in general fund revenues than had been expected, and $636,647.91 in money earned through investment of idle cash.

Although nearly 2 million dollars remained in the treasury as surplus on June 30, Tawes said $16,550,706 of it has been dedicated

GOLDEN GIFTS CHAIRMEN—Appointment of co-chairmen of the Golden Gifts Division of the County United Fund has been announced by Lewis J. Ort, campaign chairman for the CUF

Couple Asks Injunction In Yard Work

An injunction is being sought by an Oldtown Road couple against the contractor in connection with damage they claim has been done to their property while the firm is working on the B&O Railroad Company yard expansion project.

Carl G. Valentine and Shirley Valentine, his wife, have filed an equity suit in Circuit Court against the Harrison Construction Company, which is doing the grading and drainage on the huge project along the Oldtown Road. The Valentines state in their bill of complaint, which was filed by Attorney William R. Carscaden, that they own property in Frazier Addition, located on the south side of Oldtown Road about one mile southeast of Cumberland, and this property is improved with dwellings.

They go on to say that the Harrison Construction Company, in carrying on the construction work for the B&O, operates heavy vehicles called "Euclids" which make a great deal of noise and spread dust and fumes over the Valentines' property. This work starts at 6 a. m. and continues until 1:30 a. m. the next day, they say.

Because of the noise, dust and smoke, the Valentines contend that they are unable to get their proper sleep and rest and their property is being damaged. They ask for a mandatory injunction requiring the company to abate and correct the nuisance, and they ask for an award of pecuniary damages.

Associate Judge Morgan C. Harris signed a show cause order giving the construction company until August 10 to show cause why the injunction should not be granted.

Queen Selected At Penn Avenue

Marcella Adams was selected as queen of the Penn Avenue Playground last night. Her attendants are Mary Jane Adams and Caroline Cooper.

Prior to the queen contest the playlot held a button competition with Connie Cooper winning the prize for the largest button on exhibition, Linda Troutman, most unusual; Sandy Brehm, smallest; Vickie Lee Davison, Footen, largest collection of buttons; and prettiest; Allen Jeffries, most unusual; and Gary Orndorff, best trained. Judges were Jeneen Rowley and Barbara Lynn.

Winners in the recent pet show are Steve Hidey, largest; Jimmy Footen, smallest; Leta Hudson, largest collection of buttons; and prettiest; Allen Jeffries, most unusual; and Gary Orndorff, best trained. Judges were Jeneen Rowley and Barbara Lynn.

Walsh And Douglas Will Head Golden Gifts Unit

William A. Douglas has been named chairman and William C. Walsh co-chairman of the Golden Gifts Division of the County United Fund, Lewis J. Ort, CUF campaign chairman announced today.

The Golden Gifts Division, more, is the first section of the County United Fund to organize and will swing into action as the shock troops in the campaign to garner $250,000 in gifts to cover the health, welfare and youth needs of the geographical "U" marked off by Cumberland, Frostburg, Tri-Towns and Keyser.

Both Qualified
"It would be difficult to find two men better qualified to take the broad viewpoint required for organizing givers in the County United Fund," Ort said in appointing Douglas and Walsh.

He pointed out that both men are accustomed to doing things on a broad scale, Douglas as director of the far-flung operations of the Hazelwood Construction Company, of which he is president, and Walsh as an attorney with law offices in both Cumberland and Baltimore, as well as having been a circuit court and court of appeals judge, attorney general of Maryland, and prominent in county, state and national bar associations.

"Walsh has been active in community fund-raising campaigns for some 40 years," Ort added. "He served on the original board of the Community Chest in 1926, helped to draw up its constitution, and was active almost continuously in its affairs since then."

Directed Church Drive
"Douglas is well known for his recent work in directing the building fund campaign of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, which exceeded $200,000, and for serving as president of the Cumberland Country Club during its reorganization and refinancing program."

"The ability of these two leading citizens in serving their fellow men has been amply demonstrated through their fraternal affiliations—Walsh through his work in the Knights of Columbus, and Douglas in Masonic, Shrine and Jesters' circles."

An insignia is being designed for the Golden Gifts Division, according to the campaign chairman.

North Branch Area To Plan Youth Center

Adults of the North Branch, Oldtown Road and Mexico Farms area will meet tomorrow at 8 p. m. in the District 16 Fire Hall to see what they can do about organizing a youth center.

Mrs. George Abbott, of North Branch, who has been spearheading the movement along with Rev. and Mrs. Charles Hoffman, said there are no facilities for recreation for the teenagers of that section.

She pointed out the plan for a youth center with dances on the first and third Fridays has the backing of the Ladies Auxiliary of the District 16 Volunteer Fire Company.

A group from North Branch met yesterday with Eugene Mason, city recreation director, and Mrs. Eva Hogan, assistant recreation director.

Advice on a program for youths at this semi-monthly gathering was given by the two city officials, Mrs. Abbott said.

She emphasized that there are plenty of youngsters, but not enough adults to assist in the youth center activities. She urged interested persons to attend.

Injured Men 'Unchanged'

Attaches at Miners Hospital, Frostburg, today reported the condition of two Lonaconing men, who were injured yesterday morning in a highway accident which claimed the lives of two other men, as "unchanged."

Erne Lee Smith, 25, was reported in "poor" condition. He was unconscious when admitted and in a severe state of shock. Smith is a school teacher at Essex. Billy Powell, 24, who operates a service station in Lonaconing, was listed as "fair." He had a concussion when admitted and was suffering from shock and multiple lacerations.

Killed in the accident, which took place on State Route 36 near Gilmore were Edward J. Robertson, 26, of Lonaconing, and Calvin C. Thrasher, 33, of Midland.

The State's Attorney's office is investigating the mishap that occurred at approximately 2 a. m. yesterday and was attributed to excessive speed.

City Heads To See Movies On Sewage Plant

Engineering Firm Plans To Show Films Of Construction Work

An hour-long movie on the construction of the city's sewage treatment plant will be shown to the Mayor and Council one evening next week.

Robert T. Regester, consulting engineer in charge of the $2,000,000 project, has had his engineering aides take films at regular intervals during the two years the plant has been under construction.

He told Mayor Roy W. Eves and Thomas B. Finan, city attorney, this morning, that the films, after being edited, will take about an hour to run.

They will show much more than can be told in hours, he added. The sewage treatment plant has been the subject of much discussion by the council in recent weeks.

The project is over 150 days overdue from the original target date, and the contractor, Moyer Brothers Construction Company, of Altoona, has been pressing for $87,000 which the city is holding up pending final approval of the installation by the consulting engineer.

A city official, who preferred to remain anonymous today, commented that the responsibility for the plant is all Regester's, and he should be fully satisfied with its operation before approving it. Last night and today Regester and Edward Kidd, of Regester's firm who has been assigned to this job, were at the plant.

The first sewage entered yesterday, and they were observing the operations of the facilities.

Youths Involved In Cutting Fracas Put On Probation

Two teenage youths were given suspended sentences to the Maryland Boys Village at a hearing this morning before Juvenile Magistrate Fred H. Anderson as the result of a cutting episode Monday night.

The boys were placed on strict probation, one for a year and the other for six months, ordered to obey their parents, attend church and report regularly to the probation officer. The one youth was placed on probation for a year in view of his past record in Juvenile Court, Anderson explained.

The cutting episode took place following an argument that started at a party, court officials said. One of the boys obtained a butcher knife and when he raised it the other youth swung at him. The boy who was cut was treated at a hospital after the father of one of the two separated them and broke up the fracas.

Shirley Auvil Playlot Queen

Shirley Auvil was selected as queen of the Post Playlot and will be crowned in ceremonies today at 7:30 p. m. by last year's queen, Dorothy Reynolds. Attendants to the queen are Mary Ann Sommerkamp and Charlotte Murphy.

The tiny tot queen is Esther Myers. The program tonight will be in charge of Angela Pelzer, playground leader.

The three-man Post Playlot basketball team defeated the Penn Avenue team by a 32 to 16 score yesterday. Donnie Lewis, Thurl Roy and John Estes are the winning players.

The Post team opposed the Southern Division title by the investigating the mishap that occurred at approximately 2 a. m. yesterday and was attributed to excessive speed.

TEACHER ASSIGNED—Mrs. Eunice Moffatt Junkins, State Street, Lonaconing, a graduate of Frostburg State Teachers College this June, has been assigned as a teacher at Central Elementary School in her home town. She was graduated from Central High School, Lonaconing, in 1953. At college she was active in the Maryland Singers, Women's Recreation Association, and was on the year-book staff.

$9,400 Award Goes To Youth For Injuries

Attorneys Plan To Take Appeal For Cresaptown Resident

A Cresaptown youth, hurt in a fall down the elevator shaft of a downtown store a few hours after he reported for his first day of work there, has received a $9,400 award from the State Industrial Accident Commission for permanent and total disabilities.

The claimant is John Hersh, 20, who received multiple injuries in the fall down the shaft at Peskin's Inc., on Baltimore Street.

Maximum Award
While he received the maximum award for the wage at which he was hired, his attorneys are appealing the amount, because it did not take into consideration his future earning ability.

Peter J. Carpentieri and Simon F. Reilly, his counsel, said they will file an appeal in Allegany County Circuit Court.

At the hearings in Hersh's case, testimony was introduced in his behalf to show he had an adeptness with floral arranging and was studying that trade.

Cite Future Earnings
They claimed that Hersh in the future would be making at least $50 a week, at this work, which would qualify him for a higher award.

Hersh was hurt on February 28, 1956, just an hour or two after he had started work.

As a result of his injuries, Hersh was ruled to have the following permanent and total disabilities:

Left arm, 15 per cent; left leg, 40 per cent; left eye, 35 per cent loss of vision, and under other ailments, 40 per cent total disability.

He received temporary total disability payments weekly from the day he was injured until February 24 of this year.

LaVale Zone Group Holds First Meeting

The newly elected LaVale Zoning Board holds its first meeting Tuesday night at the home of its chairman, John J. Rowan, Woodlawn.

Immediate problems for zoning the sprawling District 29 were discussed. All of the district is included under the zoning legislation approved by the voters in a referendum June 17.

Organization of the board was held up for over three weeks while waiting for a decision from the State Law Department on the breaking of the tie for chairmanship that existed between Rowan and C. A. Lancaster, who were the top vote getters in the race for the board.

The initial session was also postponed due to the attendance of the third member, Leslie J. Clark, at Army Reserve camp with the 372nd Military Police Company of which he is commanding officer.

Preparations are underway to zone the district in various classifications, all of which will be set up after the residents of the section to be zoned are given public hearings.

The board also moved to setup the machinery for building and occupancy permit applications and subsequent hearings or action on them.

Queen Crowned At East Side Playground

Miss Eileen Naughton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Naughton, was crowned Queen of the East Side Playground Tuesday.

Attendants were Sandra Simpson and Darlene Moore. Flower girls were Joyce Wolfe and Susan Porter.

Playlot Meeting Set

A meeting of the Mapleside Playground Association will be held tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. at the Mapleside Methodist Church.

Mayor Terms Dispute "Tempest In Teapot"

A tempest in a teapot, without an tea.

That was the opinion of Mayor Roy W. Eves of the Sylvan Retreat issue precipitated in a conversation among Board of Allegany County Commissioners members Tuesday, July 23.

A report of that meeting said the commissioners desired a meeting with City Police to discuss procedures to be followed in having persons admitted to the mental institution.

A conference was set up for this Tuesday by the commissioners and city officials, but William V. Keegan informed William H. Lemmert, board president, that neither he nor Police Chief R. Emmett Flynn would attend.

He said he was opposed to having the meeting at Sylvan Retreat, and added that any meeting should have City Attorney Thomas B. Finan and the two local trial magistrates present. Finan was on vacation.

However, today Mayor Eves said that all the county desires is for city authorities to have an understanding of the situation at the crowded mental institution.

The highlight of Tuesday's meeting, he said, was a tour he took through Sylvan Retreat. The Mayor was the city's only representative at the session.

While Raymond G. Messmer, Sylvan Retreat superintendent, had no figures available at the moment, Mayor Eves said he has had information the City Police have sent no person to the mental institution since January 1.

Only one, he added, was admitted by State Police, while five were taken there for examination from the Health Department. These were taken to the institution by sheriff's deputies.

However, as Mayor Eves and Messmer pointed out today, the capacity of the structure is 90 beds, while there are actually 96 patients today with two more to be admitted this evening.

POULTRY PULCHRITUDE—Tri-state area princesses carried off all of the honors at Moorefield, W. Va., last night by sweeping the first three places in the "West Virginia Poultry Queen" contest. Miss Louise Pyles (center) 17-year-old Keyser High School graduate, was crowned "Poultry Queen VI" in the field of 31 princesses from a dozen West Virginia counties, Sudelle

Kiser (left), of Romney, was chosen first runnerup, and Miss Wilma Lee Kiser (right), also of Romney, second runnerup. The queen contest featured the opening day of the fifteenth annual convention of the West Virginia Poultry Association and the sixth annual Poultry Festival sponsored by the Moorefield Volunteer Fire Company.

Fried Pies—Blue Ribbon Star Dessert

Fried pies are traditionally a southern favorite. But more and more fried pies are becoming a well-liked northern dessert specialty.

If you have not tasted these tempting individual pie creations, here's your opportunity. Imagine cutting into a flaky, crisp fried pie which is filled with a tempting peach, apricot or prune filling. It's the custom to serve the pies sprinkled with confectioners' sugar. Yum — it's an unbeatable dessert.

Reba Staggs, home economist, suggests using lard when preparing the pastry for these pies. Lard has great shortening power and good workable qualities which make it a favorite of many homemakers.

Fried Pies

2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup lard
1/2 cup cold water
2 cups drained cooked peaches, prunes or apricots
1/4 cup sugar
1 pound lard for deep-fat frying
Confectioners' sugar

Sift together flour and salt and cut in lard. Add water. Roll out on floured board to about 1/8 inch in thickness. With a large cookie cutter, cut circles about 5 inches in diameter. Add 1/4 cup sugar to fruit. In each round, place 1 1/2 tablespoons sweetened drained fruit. Moisten edges of pastry with cold water, fold to make a semicircle and press edges together with a fork. Fry in hot lard (350° F.) for 3 to 4 minutes or until golden brown. Drain. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar. Yield: 12 pies.

Chilled Soups Furnish Hot-Weather Pickups

CHILLED SOUP like this tomato garnished with cucumber can serve to revive appetites that wilt in the summer doldrums.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX

Even though the thermometer soars, your body still needs good nourishment. But the appetite, of course, needs a pickup and that's where chilled soups are important.

Here are two excellent chilled soup recipes that illustrate the versatility of instant nonfat dry milk (also is economy).

Summer Tomato Soup

(Six 1/2-cup servings)
Two tablespoons butter, 1 small onion, chopped; 2 cups liquefied instant nonfat dry milk, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, dash of pepper, 1 (8-oz.) can tomato sauce.

Melt butter in top of double boiler; sauté onion until tender. Remove from pan. Pour liquefied instant nonfat dry milk into top.

of double boiler; sprinkle flour, salt and pepper over surface. Beat with rotary beater until just blended. Add onions. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until slightly thickened, about 15 minutes. Cool to room temperature. Slowly blend in tomato sauce. Chill in refrigerator about an hour before serving.

Mint Cool Soup

(6-8 servings)

One cup water, 1 medium-size onion, finely chopped; 1/2 cup chopped mint, 3 chicken bouillon cubes, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 quart water, 2 (3/4 cup) envelopes instant nonfat dry milk powder or 1 1/2 cups instant nonfat dry milk powder.

Combine 1 cup water, onion, mint, bouillon cubes and butter in 6-quart saucepan; simmer 10-15 minutes. Place water in shaker or large bowl; sprinkle instant nonfat dry milk powder over surface and stir or shake until dissolved. Add to onion mixture. Chill in refrigerator until serving time.

Tomorrow's Dinner: Summer tomato soup with sliced cucumber garnish, pan-broiled ham steak, frozen potato puffs, corn on cob, seeded rolls, butter or margarine cakes, coffee, tea, milk.

Asparagus Idea

A novel way to serve fresh asparagus is to roll biscuit dough out to a circle 12 inches in diameter and cut into six pie-shaped wedges.

On each wedge place several cooked asparagus spears at the wide end and roll up as for buttermilk rolls.

Place on a greased baking sheet and bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes. Serve hot with a creamy cheese sauce.

Meals To Cut Kitchen Time Short

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Summer cooks who yearn to stay out of the kitchen might note these two recipes for main dishes that can be put together quickly. We're not saying these will do for a big dinner but they're fine for supper or lunchtime use.

Here, for instance, is a spanking new way to serve corned beef hash (out of a can) that our family enjoyed. The inspiration for it came from the Russian way of mixing chilled beets with a cold creamy sauce. Originally the sauce was made with sour cream, but because that product is not always available, we're offering what we believe is an excellent substitute using evaporated milk and vinegar. We were egged on to try these beets with corned-beef hash because we remembered that in New England the two foods are sometimes combined.

Any leftover cooked corn around the house? Cut the kernels from the cobs and use them along with green lima beans and a couple of cans of Vienna sausage for this other quick main dish.

Hash Patties With Beet Relish

Ingredients: 1 can (1 pound) beets (drained), 2 teaspoons sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 to 2 tablespoons bottled horseradish, 1/2 cup undiluted evaporated milk, 2 teaspoons cider vinegar, 2 cans (1 pound each) corned beef hash.

Method: Chop beets very fine; stir in sugar, salt and horseradish. Stir together undiluted evaporated milk and vinegar so milk thickens; stir into beet mixture. Cover and refrigerate to chill and blend flavors. When ready to serve, open cans of corned beef hash at both ends and slide out hash in one piece. Carefully cut each hash loaf into 4 slices; place on baking sheet or broiler tray without rack. Broil 3 inches from heat, turning once, about 10 minutes, or until browned and heated through. Serve at once with beet relish. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Summer Sausage Skillet Dinner

Ingredients: 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1/2 teaspoon tabasco sauce, 2 cups cooked whole kernel corn cut off the cob, 1/2 cups cooked green lima beans, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon sugar, 1/16 teaspoon dried crushed thyme, 2 cans (4 ounces each) Vienna sausage, 1/2 cup light cream.

Method: Melt butter in skillet; stir in tabasco. Add corn and lima beans; sprinkle with salt, sugar and thyme; mix well. Arrange Vienna sausage over vegetables. Cover and cook over low heat 10 minutes, or until meat is heated through. Stir in cream; heat to serving temperature. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

CRISPY SPARERIBS

Ingredients: 2 racks young meaty fresh pork spareribs (3 1/2 to 4 pounds), salt, 1/2 cup leftover syrup from canned pineapple slices or chunks or tidbits, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 tablespoons cider vinegar, 2 teaspoons American-type soy sauce.

Method: Place spareribs, meaty side up, in large rectangular roasting pan so they can lie fairly flat. Sprinkle lightly with salt. Roast in very hot (450 degrees) oven 30 minutes. Remove spareribs and pour off fat from pan. With kitchen scissors cut spareribs into individual sections of 1 or 2 ribs. Return to roasting pan, meaty side up. Stir together with pineapple syrup, sugar, vinegar and soy sauce; pour over spareribs, making sure to add any sugar that has not dissolved. Return to moderate (350 degrees) oven, basting every 10 minutes with liquid in pan, until cooked through and crispy brown 45 minutes or longer. Remove spareribs and drain on brown paper. Serve with Chinese style hot mustard and Chinese-style sweet fruit sauce (sometimes called Duck Sauce and put up in bottles). Note: Have meatman split any knucklelike bone on thickest side of sparerib racks so they will be easy to cut through with kitchen scissors.

Ladies lunch: Sliced baked ham with a salad of apple, celery and mayonnaise garnished with water cress and salted pecans.

Washing Saves Paint

Repainting woodwork can be postponed for a long time if the woodwork is kept clean. Two galvanized steel pails, one filled with soapy wash water and the other with clear rinse water, and three soft cloths are all the equipment needed. A light, circular motion with a sudsy cloth on the surface of the woodwork will loosen the dirt. Rinse quickly with a second cloth wrung out in clear water and dry immediately.

Saucy Advice

Add minced parsley to that mushroom sauce for steak or hamburgers.

Room Temperature Spoils Much Food During Summertime

DETROIT—(INS)—Keep it hot, keep it cold or don't keep it at all.

This was the annual summer warning from Detroit health commissioner Dr. Joseph G. Molner concerning storage of food.

He said ptomaine poisoning strikes many people who don't observe this rule. Meats, fish, milk, salad dressing, cream fillings, gelatines and puddings may be unfit to eat if left at room temperature for an hour or two. Dr. Molner cautioned that taste, odor and appearance may remain the same, but such foods can be dangerous.

He added that picnic lunches may spoil when transported long distances without being packed in ice or in insulated containers.

Clean Woodwork Before Painting

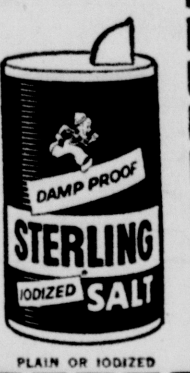

Any brick home will look better if the window sashes and other woodwork are clean and bright. Before applying a fresh coat of paint to seedy-looking woodwork, clean the surface so that the paint will cling better. First, scrape away any loose or peeling old paint. Rub the wood with sandpaper to even the surface. Then scrub both the sill and sash with a scrub brush and thick soapsuds to wash away surface dirt and grime. Use two galvanized pails to save time. Fill one with soapy wash water and the other with clear rinse water.

BARBECUED CORN

Husk ears of corn carefully. Spread with lots of butter, and sprinkle generously with Sterling Salt. Wrap each ear in aluminum foil. Roast over hot coals for about 10 minutes, turning often. Corn cooked this way in the oven has a wonderful barbecue flavor, too! P.S. Any dish has extra zest, extra flavor richness when cooked and seasoned with Sterling Salt!

Appetizer Made Of Chive Cheese

An appetizer has been described as something very good made out of something very little—a description most fitting for these little cheese-tizers, made only of chive cream cheese, oven-toasted rice cereal and a dash of paprika.

Simply shape the softened cheese into small balls, then—just before serving—roll them in the crisp cereal and spear with toothpicks. Arrange cheese tizers on a plate centered with lightly grilled appetizer sausages and serve—one hot, one cold, both quick.

Cheese-Tizers

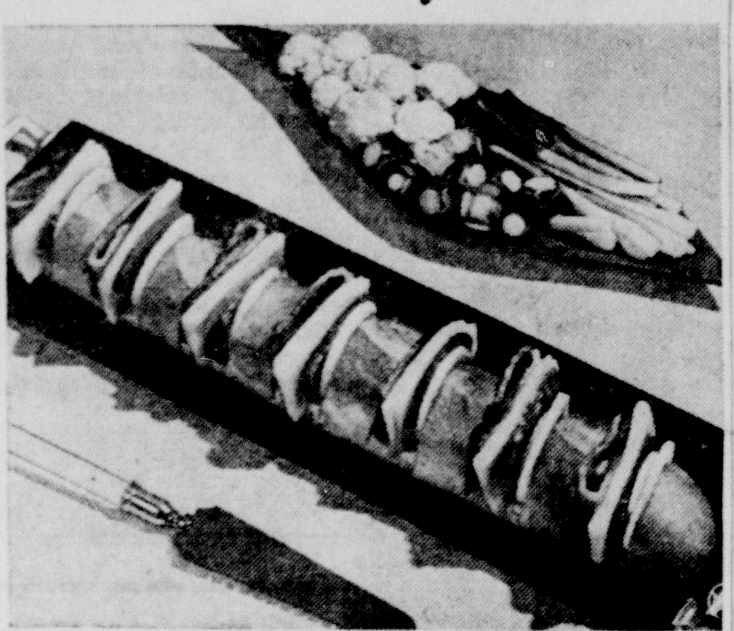

1/2 cup chive cream cheese
1 cup oven-toasted rice cereal
Paprika, if desired

Beat cheese until slightly softened. Shape cheese into small balls, using about 1 teaspoon cheese for each. Just before serving roll in cereal. Serve at once on toothpicks as an appetizer or salad accompaniment.

Yield: 32 balls, 1 inch in diameter.

Cheese not only contributes calcium and protein, but when it is made from whole milk it is an excellent source of vitamin A and a good source of riboflavin.

'Mile-Long' Sandwich Excellent Party Food

PARTY FOOD that's different and can be served hot or cold is the "mile-long" sandwich made with French or Vienna bread.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX

About the best fun food at a party is this mile-a-minute sandwich. Serve it hot or cold.

Purchase "mile-long" loaves of French or Vienna bread. Assemble the fillings—corned beef, sliced Swiss cheese, dill pickles and sweet Bermuda onions. These are tucked into hollowed-out sections of the bread. If a hot sandwich is wanted, after the loaf is stuffed, heat it in the oven until the bread is crusty.

Corned Beef-Swiss Cheese Loaf (8 servings)

One (1 pound) loaf French or Vienna bread, 1/2 cup soft butter or margarine, 8 slices corned beef, 8 slices Swiss cheese, 2 long slices dill pickles, 8 thin slices Bermuda onions.

Cut loaf into 1 1/4-inch slices, almost through to the bottom crust. Hollow out alternate sections of the loaf almost to bottom crust but do not cut through crust. Butter hollowed-out sections. Place the following into each buttered section: 1 slice corned beef, rolled; 1 slice of cheese folded in half; 1 slice of dill pickle and 1 slice of onion. Place loaf on a shallow baking sheet and bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 10 minutes.

To serve: Slice bread between sections to make sandwiches.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Tomato and grapefruit cocktail, corned beef-Swiss cheese loaf, whipped potatoes, corn on cob, butter or fortified margarine, blackberry pie, coffee, tea, milk.

Entrance Work To Park Starts

Work was started this week on a new entrance road and a new parking area at the New Germany Recreation Area in Garrett County, District Forester William H. Johnson reports.

The forester explained that the State Department of Forests and Parks gave the county the necessary land to relocate the county road near New Germany. Now the State Department of Forests and Parks has contracted with the Garrett County Roads Department for construction of a new entrance road and the parking area which will accommodate about 120 cars.

This new arrangement will eliminate a hazardous condition which took the county road near the New Germany beach. With increased use of the area in recent years it has sometimes been necessary for motorists to park their cars on the county road right-of-way.

Work was started Tuesday and Mr. Johnson hopes it will be completed by about September 1.

Garrett County then will construct a one-quarter mile road through a new camping area where a wash house is nearing completion. Toilet, bathing and laundry facilities will be provided there for campers.

Picnic Outing Menu Offers Ham Kabobs

Picnics can adequately be described as one of the greatest American pastimes during the summer months.

Old or young, couple or crowd, backyard, beach or patio, a picnic usually designates one central theme—outdoor cookery around an open fire, grill or barbecue pit.

According to Reba Staggs, home economist, hamburgers and frankfurters have long been considered popular picnic fare but the kabob is fast becoming a leader in outdoor cookery. For those not familiar with this term, a kabob is an array of bite-size bits or chunks of meat, fruit, mushrooms or other vegetables on a stick. A kabob combination is no set recipe. Let your imagination be your guide.

This particular recipe uses cooked ham, green pepper squares, pineapple chunks and sweet potatoes. Lamb is used frequently in kabob cookery, even frankfurters and canned luncheon meat are favorites.

Fiesta Ham Kabobs

1 1/2 pounds cooked ham cut into 1/2-inch cubes
1 can (16 ounces) pineapple chunks

2 green peppers, cut into 1/2-inch squares

2 cans (1 lb. 7 oz. each) vacuum packed sweet potatoes

1/4 cup melted butter or margarine

4 large metal skewers

Thread ham cubes, pineapple chunks, sweet potatoes and green pepper squares on metal skewers. Use 3 ham cubes on each metal skewer, alternating pineapple chunk, ham cube, green pepper square, pineapple chunk and sweet potato.

Place kabobs on rack in broiler so the top surface of the meat is 3 to 4 inches from the heat.

Brush the vegetables and fruit with melted butter or margarine. Broil kabobs until lightly browned on all sides; total broiling time is 12 to 15 minutes. Serve hot. If grilling kabobs over glowing coals out-of-doors, the same procedure is followed except that the kabobs will be placed over the heat rather than under it.

CRISP CEREAL COOKIES

Ingredients: 1 cup sifted flour, 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup firmly-packed dark brown sugar, 1/2 cup dark corn syrup, 1/2 cup shortening, 1 egg, 1 1/2 cups quick-cooking rolled oats, 1 individual box (1 ounce or about 3/4 cup) ready-to-eat flaked wheat cereal.

Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Heat brown sugar and corn syrup in a heavy saucepan over low heat until sugar is dissolved. Pour sugar mixture over shortening in mixing bowl, stirring until smooth; cool. Beat in egg. Add sifted dry ingredients, rolled oats and flaked wheat cereal; beat until thoroughly mixed. (Wheat flakes will break up in the process.) Chill until firm. Make small balls of the mixture—each about the size of a large marble—and place on greased cookie sheet several inches apart. (Dough will be somewhat sticky.) Press fairly thin with the flat bottom of a glass. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven until lightly browned—8 to 10 minutes. Remove at once to cooling rack. If cookies harden too much to remove easily, place in oven again for a few seconds to soften. Store in tightly covered container when cool and crisp. Makes about 6 dozen.

Moisten brown sugar with a little maraschino juice left from that jar of cherries and use as a glaze for baked ham.

Glamor Treatment For Snap Beans

SMOOTH, TANGY MUSTARD SAUCE gives new flavor to snap beans, a treat for family or guests.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor

One fine way to dress up everyday green snap beans is to serve them with a scrumptiously smooth sauce. Egg yolks and milk produce the velvet texture of the sauce; dry mustard, pepper and lemon juice give it tang.

This sauce is one for would-be epicures (and well-established gourmets, too) to keep in their repertoire. It has many uses—not only with such other vegetables as cauliflower, broccoli and spinach—but we've found it delicious with broiled chicken and fish.

Snap Beans With Epicure Sauce

Ingredients: 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 teaspoon flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon white pepper, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 2 egg yolks, 3/4 cup milk, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 pound whole green snap beans (freshly cooked and drained and hot), diced canned pimiento or fresh sweet red pepper (for garnish).

Method: Melt butter in a heavy saucepan (about 1 quart) over low heat. Remove from heat. Stir in flour, salt, white pepper and dry mustard thoroughly.

Clean Marble

Marble table tops, fireplace mantles and stairways can be cleaned easily by wetting with plenty of hot water, then using a scrub brush to work in thick soapsuds. Use two galvanized steel pails; one filled with soapy water and the other with rinse water. After rinsing thoroughly, dry the marble carefully to prevent water marks.

WEIGHT-WATCHERS CUSTARD

Ingredients: 1 1/2 cups liquefied instant nonfat dry milk, 1/4 cup firmly-packed dark brown sugar, 1/4 teaspoon vanilla, 3 egg whites, 1/4 cup flaked coconut.

Method: Stir liquefied instant nonfat dry milk, sugar and vanilla together until sugar is dissolved. Beat egg whites slightly; add to milk mixture and beat just enough to combine. Stir in coconut. Pour into four 1/2-cup size custard cups. Place cups in shallow metal baking pan. Pour very hot water into pan to depth of 1 inch. Bake in slow (325 degrees) oven until a knife inserted near center of custard comes out clean—about 50 minutes. Remove from water bath at once; place in pan of cold water to cool quickly. Chill. Calories per serving: 115. If coconut is omitted, each dessert will be 94 calories.

"Happy Birthday!" Posy Cake, Coffee

Who has the most fun at a birthday party? Next to the birthday child himself, it is undoubtedly the lucky lady who has all the pleasure of making the birthday cake and decorating it.

At every birthday party, coffee and cake hold the center of the stage. Here is a springtime birthday cake that is touched with inspiration. The cake itself is half white, half lemony yellow and its fluffy white icing is set off by a ring of bright gumpod flowers. The flowers themselves are fun to make—just cut out a batch of gumpod petals, a few centers and stems. Then "arrange" to your heart's content until you have tulips, daisies and a few rare exotic specimens. Posy Cake, we call it—and that's just what it is!

Of course, you'll want to ring your beflowered cake with steaming coffee served in your prettiest cups. You'll make sure, of course, that there are plenty of seconds in the coffee pot. A cake like this will be eaten to the last gumpod petal and it's going to take a lot of coffee to "go with."

POSY CAKE

1 cup sifted cake flour
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups egg whites (12)
1 1/2 teaspoons cream of tartar

1/4 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup sugar
4 egg yolks, well-beaten
1 teaspoon lemon extract
1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift flour and 1/4 cup sugar 3 times. Combine egg whites, cream of tartar and salt in large bowl. Beat until foamy. Add remaining 3/4 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating well after each addition. Continue beating until meringue will hold stiff peaks. Sift the flour mixture, a little at a time, over meringue, folding in gently after each addition until all is added. Divide batter in half. Fold egg yolks and lemon extract into one half. Fold vanilla into other half. Drop alternating spoonfuls of white and yellow batters into 10-inch tube pan. Cut through batter with knife starting at tube and going around pan in widening circles 5 or 6 times, to outer rim. Bake in moderate oven, 375°, 30 to 35 minutes. Invert pan until cold. Remove cake. Frost with white icing. Decorate with stylized flowers cut from gumpods.

Like caraway seeds in that cole slaw? One teaspoon of the seeds will be about right for one quart of cabbage.

Hamburgers Sport Fancy New Topping

Every year, ground beef has a major role to play in the picnic months of June, July and August. Because of their ease to pack up and travel, hamburgers have become the piece de resistance of the American picnic table.

Except for possible variations in ingredients and toppings, from all outward appearances, hamburgers are just plain hamburgers. Yet they remain in the spotlight on the popularity poll of picnic entrees.

Reba Staggs, well known meat expert, mentions a perfect way to vary hamburgers . . . these hamburgers will be a special treat for a back porch eat-out.

The fancy addition is a broiled topping. You have your choice of two.

Hamburgers With Broiled Topping

1 1/2 pounds ground beef
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 1/2 teaspoons salt

Combine ground beef, salt and pepper and form 6 round patties. Place on broiler rack so that the patties are about 3 inches from the heat. Broil on one side until nicely browned, about 10 minutes. Turn, broil second side about 5 minutes. Spread patties with desired topping and broil about 2 more minutes. Yield: 6 patties.

Roquefort Topping: Mix together 6 teaspoons Roquefort cheese and 6 teaspoons chopped onion and top each patty with mixture. Finish broiling.

Spanish Topping: Spread about 2 teaspoons of chili sauce on each patty and top with sliced, stuffed olives. Finish broiling.

Fish Fillets with Tomato Sauce
Ingredients: 1 1/4 pounds fish fillets, salt, pepper, 1 can (1 pound) tomatoes, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon flour, 2 tablespoons tomato paste, 1/4 teaspoon dried crumbled basil.
Method: Place fish fillets in baking dish—about 6 by 10 inches, overlapping where necessary. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Drain tomatoes; arrange tomatoes over fillets. Strain any seeds from tomato liquid; if there is not 1/2 cup juice add water to make that amount. Melt butter in a small saucepan over low heat; stir in flour. Add tomato liquid, tomato paste, sugar and basil. Cook and stir constantly until thickened. Pour over fish and tomatoes. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven until fish is cooked through—20 to 30 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Easy Dinner

Prepare your favorite meat loaf mixture. Pack it into an 8x11-inch loaf pan. After baking, cut the loaf into six equal portions. Top each portion with a swirl of mashed potatoes. Place the meat squares and mashed potatoes under the broiler just long enough for the potatoes to gain a golden tinge.

Gangway For A Cooling Sherbet!

TIME OUT for a cooling orange sherbet served fresh from the freezer in individual paper cups.

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Make up a batch of this orange sherbet and your youngsters and their gang will enjoy it for that mid-afternoon treat on a warm summer afternoon. Spoon the sherbet into paper cups with lids and store in your freezer. Have plastic or wooden spoons on hand and a half dozen kids can enjoy this frosty sweet and there'll be no dishwashing afterwards.

You might also like to try two variations of this orange sherbet—one with crushed peppermint candy added, the other with chopped semi-sweet chocolate.

ORANGE SHERBET

Ingredients: 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/2 cup cold water, 1 1/4 cups hot water, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup (one 6-ounce can) frozen orange juice concentrate (undiluted), 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 egg white (stiffly beaten), 8 four-ounce paper containers with lids.

Method: Soften gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water. Add hot water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Dissolve sugar and salt in hot liquid. Add orange concentrate and lemon juice. Pour into freezing tray. When partially frozen (about 1 hour) beat until fluffy. Fold in stiffly beaten egg white. Freeze 30 minutes and beat again. Spoon into paper cups and cover. Store in freezer until ready to use. Makes 6 servings.

Peppermint-Orange: After second beating fold in 1-3 cup crushed peppermint candy. Spoon into paper cups and cover. Store in freezer until ready to use.

Chocolate-Orange: After second beating fold in 1/2 cup chopped semi-sweet chocolate pieces. Spoon into paper cups and cover. Store in freezer until ready to use.

Cleanup Yard After Bar-B-Q

Backyard barbecues are lots of fun but the resulting litter can spoil the appearance of the yard and even be a health hazard to family. Scraps and crumbs of food attract disease-bearing flies and rats and provide them with an incentive to make themselves at home.

It's easy to avoid this hazard simply by keeping a covered, galvanized steel garbage pail beside the picnic table, and putting the scraps and crumbs directly into it. Supervise the children in "policing" the area afterwards, picking up all rubbish and litter and placing it in the garbage pail.

One item often neglected in cleaning up after a backyard barbecue is the barbecue grill itself. The grill should be thoroughly cleaned of any food particles clinging to it. An effective way to accomplish this is to fill a galvanized steel laundry tub with a solution of water, detergent and ammonia and place the grill in it overnight. Then in the morning, simply wipe the grill with steel wool to remove any particles which have not dissolved in the solution.

Frozen Rabbit

Want to cook a rabbit? Try the frozen rabbit put out by the only rabbit meat processor granted the U.S. Department of Agriculture seal. This frozen rabbit, now sold in 40 states, is packed about two-and-one-half pounds (eight servings) to the box. It costs roughly 69 cents a pound, and can be stewed or fried.

Slice a couple of bananas into a baked pie shell. Cover with a packaged vanilla pudding mix. Top with whipped cream and shaved chocolate.

Food Stores Will Offer Variety Of 'Best Buys'

By The Associated Press

Food stores will tempt pocketbooks with a wide variety of bargains this weekend. Here are some of the better buys you're likely to find at the meat department: Turkeys, hams, swordfish, crabmeat, flounder fillets, frankfurters, frying chickens.

You'll find few bargains in beef. If anything, prices are a few cents higher on most cuts although some supermarkets are offering "specials" in hamburger and boneless chuck.

Market specialists say beef prices should head lower in early fall, as they do every year, but this time the downturn may be smaller. The reason: More beefeaters than a year ago, and fewer cattle.

Pork prices may soon go down a bit as more hogs come to market. Reductions of a few cents a pound are reported in several cities on center cut pork chops. Prices of lamb and veal are steady.

Turkeys are once again a stand-out buy. The larger birds—from 16 to 22 pounds—are being offered at rockbottom prices, and there are specials in smaller turkeys here and there. Chickens ready for frying or broiling are plentiful and cheap.

On the produce counter you'll see the usual summer favorites—tomatoes, sweet corn, squash, cucumbers, beets, carrots and cabbage—prominently displayed at attractive prices in most sections. There are exceptions—in drought-stricken areas of New York and New England, vegetable crops have been severely damaged.

Potatoes from California, Oregon and Washington state are reaching big city markets in increasing volume. Pascal or golden heart celery is rated an excellent buy this week.

Blueberries are considered one of the best buys in the fresh fruit category. Cantaloupes from the West Coast are attractively priced. So are Thompson seedless grapes and Bartlett pears from California, and watermelons from South Carolina and Maryland. Peaches are available at moderate prices in most parts.

Mop-Wringer Pail

Eliminate bending and stooping while mopping the floor by using a galvanized steel mop-wringer pail. Mopping is easier with such a pail because the wringer operates on a foot-pedal.

For a party: Pack ice cream into a fancy mold and put in your freezer. Unmold it just as you would a gelatin dessert by dipping quickly in hot water and then turning out.

Halas Sees Court Decision Threatening Football

Bear Owner Also Fears Effect Upon College Play

WASHINGTON (AP)—George Halas, a pro football pioneer, said today the Supreme Court decision holding that sport subject to antitrust regulation threatens "the American way of life."

If it is not resisted, Halas said, even college football may some day be exposed "to the penalties of the antitrust laws."

Defends Pro Game

Halas, president of the Chicago Bears, vigorously defended pro football as it's now conducted. He did so in testimony prepared for the House Antitrust Subcommittee.

The subcommittee is investigating the legal status of professional team sports — an inquiry prompted by the Supreme Court's football ruling.

Baseball remains exempt from antitrust statutes as a result of earlier decisions. The subcommittee wants to find out whether new legislation is needed to treat all pro sports alike, either inside or outside antitrust jurisdiction.

'Self Regulation'

Halas said the NFL had reached its present stature "by self-regulation." He said the draft of college players helped equalize competition and was embodied in a system that barred the pros from raiding undergraduate squads for talent. Halas maintained the contract reserve clause insured "solidarity" of NFL teams.

The pros want to keep players from jumping from one club to another during a season, he said, even as colleges acted to prevent "tramp athletes" of old from hopping from school to school.

Grid Players Association Recognized

WASHINGTON (INS)—Commissioner Bert Bell today officially recognized the National Football League Players' Association as a union-like bargaining agency for gridiron professionals.

The colorful czar of the National Football League made the announcement in surprise testimony before a House subcommittee investigating the application of anti-trust laws to big-time sports.

Bell offered to "negotiate immediately" with the players' association "concerning any differences between the players and the clubs that may exist."

Only yesterday, attorney Creighton Miller of the Players' Association accused Bell of renegeing on a promise last January to persuade the club owners to recognize the Association, which represents players on 11 of the league's 12 teams.

Bell denied today that he had broken a promise, explaining that results take some time.

Bell's unexpected announcement today recognizing the Players' Association included an offer to discuss with players the provisions of the NFL by-laws and standard players contract, which has been under attack by team members and some lawmakers.

Bell declared: "I agree with the members of the committee that it is against the best interest of the National Football League and the public to fail to recognize the Players' Association and bargain collectively with its representatives."

"This is now my official position and I wish to make that a matter of record before this committee. I respectfully request your indulgence in granting me an opportunity to effectuate this decision."

Bell said he took the action under the league's by-laws which permit him to act on matters "detrimental to the welfare of the National Football League or of professional football."

He said his decision is "not subject to revocation by the member clubs."

Campbell Fails In Record Try

CANANDAIGUA, N. Y. (AP)—Donald Campbell failed today in his first attempt on Canandaigua Lake to break his world water-speed record.

The British speed king rocketed his hydroplane, Bluebird II, to 158.6 and 187.5 miles an hour in two runs, but a slight swell on the lake made the jet-powered boat buck violently.

Campbell's record is 225.63 mph, set at Lake Coniston, England, last year.

"I took a terrific beating out there," he said after today's run.

Player Of Day Schoendienst Keeps Braves Atop NL Race

By International News Service

When the Milwaukee Braves acquired Red Schoendienst, they looked on the deal as "pennant insurance," and so far, the red-head hasn't let them down.

The classy second baseman came to Milwaukee from the New York Giants in a deal completed June 15th. Since then he has mounted a 23-game batting streak and currently is busting the ball at a .318 clip.

The 34-year-old native of German own, Ill., says the Braves have a "good chance" to win the flag. But, more importantly, he says, "we're in front right now, and that's enough."

The switch-hitting veteran helped the Braves stay in front last night when he homered, doubled and singled, in addition to drawing a walk, as Milwaukee beat Pittsburgh, 4 to 2.

The win kept the Braves a half-game ahead of St. Louis.

Schoendienst, just six feet tall and 165 pounds, reached the major leagues with St. Louis in 1945 after a hitch in the army. He led the league in stolen bases in his rookie year.

In 1946, he helped the Cards win the pennant and the World Series. He hasn't appeared in a fall classic since then, but he expects to make it this October.

Barton Seals Tie For Flag

Twilight League

With only a pair of games remaining, Barton cinched a tie for the pennant in the Twilight Baseball League yesterday by whipping Midland, 11-4, on the Barton diamond. The loop leaders have won 15 and lost three.

Runnerup Lonacning won by forfeit yesterday as Wright's Crossing was unable to field a team for the contest at "Coney." The second-placers have won 13 and dropped five.

Lefty Jim Wilson registered his sixth win against a single loss by turning back Midland yesterday. He kept seven hits well spaced and whiffed nine batters.

Manager Don Bean sparked Barton's nine-hit attack on Winters and Bill Wilson with three safeties while Jim Wilson batted a two-bagger. Bill Wilson smacked a triple for Midland.

Fintel upset Zihlman in a 5-4 contest staged at Fintel.

Jack Burner gained the decision over Bob Keister in this game.

Burner collected three hits and Delford Crowe garnered a pair and drove in Fintel's last two runs. Anderson smashed a home run for Zihlman.

Midland 2, Lonacning 0. Winters, W. Wilson (3) and Meyers, J. Wilson and Ed Warnick, LP—J. Winters.

Pen-Mar Loop Meets

Managers and officers of the Pen-Mar Little League will meet tomorrow, 8:30 p. m., at the Sports Shoppe to make plans for the playoffs and players' trip to Pittsburgh on Saturday, August 10.

Basilio Wants To KO Sugar In Title Bout

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Welterweight champion Carmen Basilio has a triple incentive in his middleweight title fight with Ray Robinson at Yankee Stadium Sept. 23—the middleweight crown, $200,000 and a desire to knock Robinson "off his high horse."

The 30-year-old ex-Marine from Chittengo, N.Y., is a swash-buckling fighter with a real zest for his trade. He dislikes Robinson and never has disguised his feelings. Sugar Ray added coals to the fire yesterday when he kept Carmen waiting more than an hour for the official signing while he studied the return bout clause in the contract.

'At Last'

When Robinson finally affixed his signature, Basilio heaved a sigh and said, "At last."

"This is what I've been waiting for," he said. "In my book, he's greedy, arrogant, and I despise him. I can't wait to get in the ring with him."

Then he said, "I'll take him off his high horse in the ring."

Robinson will collect 45 per cent of the gate and the theater-television receipts. Basilio will get 20 per cent. Promoter James D. Norris of the International Boxing Club said he expects the gate to hit between $750,000 and a million dollars. Theater-television will add at least another $250,000, he predicted.

No Home TV

There will be no home television. One reason Basilio is peeved against Robinson is that Carmen yielded 5 per cent—from 25 to 20—to get Sugar Ray to defend his 160-pound crown. Basilio originally had agreed to 25. The IBC had expected to get Robinson to sign for 40. But Robinson insisted he wanted 45 per cent. Norris wouldn't yield so Basilio kicked back 5 to seal the bout.

Robinson said what he signed for was his own business.

Hoad Still After First Match Win

LOS ANGELES (INS)—Lew Hoad, promoter Jack Kramer's $125,000 amateur catch, continued on his losing streak last night when he was soundly whipped by Pancho Segura in the $10,000 Masters Round Robin tennis tournament.

A crowd of 1400 watched Segura dispose of Hoad in 33 minutes, 6-3, 6-0. Hoad has yet to win a match in the tournament.

Unlucky Expert Tells His Tale

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

The unlucky expert was holding forth: "I went down two tricks at three no-trump. Every other table in the duplicate game played some no-trump contract also. They weren't all at game but every one made at least eight tricks and someone actually made five odd."

I asked how it happened and the unlucky expert explained:

"I don't hold any brief for the bidding but the final contract of three no-trump was certainly reasonable. It was my luck that West was one of those players who automatically lead fourth best of their longest suit. He opened the three of diamonds and, as you can see, the lead killed me."

"I won in dummy with the ace and dropped the queen from my hand. I wanted him to be sure that I held the jack also. I led the ten of clubs and let it ride. West won with the queen and went into a huddle. I hoped for a shift to one of the major suits but out came another diamond. This pulled my last tooth and although I did set up the club suit, I was never able to get back to my hand to make them. I don't suppose you want to hear about the rest of the play?"

"No, I don't," I replied. "I am curious about one thing, though. How did someone manage to make five no-trump?"

"I really don't know," was the reply. "What's more, I couldn't be less interested. Would you like some more sad stories?"

My answer was negative, and just to make sure I got away from the unlucky expert as rapidly as possible.

Dog Days For Deans

ALAMOGORDO, N. M. — If your name is Dean, you had better stay away from the corner of Vermont Avenue and 15th Street here. A large yellow dog took a bite out of Charlie Dean and Ray Dean at different times one afternoon. The men aren't even related. Police Chief Clarence Walker said.

Sealed bids will be received at the office of the City Clerk, City Hall, Cumberland, Maryland, until 10 o'clock a. m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time, August 12, 1957, for One 2½ ton cab and chassis together with dump body and heavy duty hoist, 4 speed transmission, overload springs, heater and defroster, for use at the Sewage Treatment Plant.

This truck must be equipped with bumpers, turn signals, and all other standard equipment that normally constitutes a make of this type of equipment. Long wheel base with 922 x 5 ten ply tires.

The top of the upright side of the dump body shall not exceed 5' 6" from the ground.

The bidder shall specify the earliest delivery date and shall submit detailed specifications covering the equipment on which his bid is based.

The Mayor and City Council reserves the right to select the equipment which in its judgment would be best suited for its purpose, and further reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Rehabilitation Group Elects

RIPLEY, W. Va. — Carl G. Anderson of Wheeling was installed yesterday as president of the West Virginia Chapter of the National Rehabilitation Assn. at the group's annual meeting near here.

Other officers of the 500-member state organization named to date included Samuel B. Mann of Charleston, vice president; S. Thomas Serpento, Morgantown, secretary-treasurer, and Roy E. Boone of Wheeling, membership chairman.

The NRA is an organization of more than 12,000 members, most of whom are professional persons working with the nation's handicapped.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars. For Friday, August 2, 1957.

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries) — How you begin and end the day will count to a great extent. Also whether you lag or pop-up in the middle period. Day has more advantages than show on the surface. Look for them.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus) — Influences neither too encouraging nor too restrictive. Daily routine, familiar matters can advance, depending upon how diligently you apply yourself. Heart and family interests favored.

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini) — No matter how difficult your schedule or how unappreciative others may seem, keep plugging at worthwhile activities and you will be rewarded in one way or another. Romance tops in late afternoon, evening.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer) — Not an entirely easy day for unusual or big scale matters. However, routine matters should go smoothly with keen, intelligent effort.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo) — It might be well to slow up a bit in order to gather more facts, to ascertain whether you are headed in the right direction, and to check on your tempo. Don't disagree for disagreement's sake.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo) — Get started early, briskly, but not overcautiously. "Nerves" tension do not contribute to easy accomplishment. Reflected are your tactics and system the best? Uphold good will.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra) — While your planetary aspects are stimulating now, so are those of many others, so competition will be keen. But there is always room and reward — for good work and the support of others.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 23 (Scorpio) — Give your best thoughts to sound proposals. Keep abreast of trends and show an interest in all matters. Engage in some diversion in free hours.

NOVEMBER 24 to DECEMBER 23 (Sagittarius) — A little self prodding may be necessary today. If you are your normal self, you won't waste time — your or another's.

DECEMBER 24 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn) — Look for hidden benefits, for those treasures that are always about but which most of us wistfully overlook. Many of the biggest, best days start with "little" advantages. Enjoy a good laugh.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius) — Tackle your duties and obligations, then arrange the in-between moments for relaxing. No day should go by without some reflection, meditation.

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces) — Plan thoughtfully, but once you have set a plan, follow it determinedly, with conviction. And the happier you are at work, the easier your attainment. Happenings of the past may re-occur.

YOU BORN TODAY are dependent upon affection but independent otherwise. You need cheerful, wholesome associations, can travel with ease, but usually return to early scenes. You have tremendous vitality, deep sympathy, will fight for great odds for what you believe right. Be sure you ARE right, however — not just defending opinions. When on the right route there is no finer, stronger ally. You would make an inspirational speaker; able leader, officer. You work amicably with authority, always help to maintain harmony at home.

W.Va. Four-H Camp Starts

JACKSON'S MILL, W. Va. (AP) — A record 311 youths from 48 counties are registered for the annual State 4-H Boys Camp under way here.

The figure compared with 263 in 1956 and the previous high enrollment of 265 in 1955. Kanawha County led the way with 37 representatives, while 22 of the youths were from Harrison and 15 from Marion.

Joseph G. Gluck, director of student affairs at West Virginia University, was among speakers today.

Shoe Approach

CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — On leaving the navy as a lieutenant, John E. Harman, formerly of Nashville, Tenn., wrote to prospective employers: "Ah'm from Tennessee, but I've put on my shoes and I'm ready for work in California." The job he landed—junior right-of-way engineer for the state division of highways.

Major Labor Groups Oppose Tax Increase

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — A group representing major segments of organized labor in West Virginia have gone on record unanimously against enactment of "any additional permanent or temporary taxes" by the special session of the Legislature which convenes Monday.

The action was taken by the West Virginia Joint Labor Legislative Committee, composed of representatives of the State Federation of Labor, State CIO Council, United Mine Workers, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and Brotherhood of Railway Clerks.

Miles Stanley, secretary of the committee, said the group advocated financing payment of a State bonus to Korean War veterans as provided in the original legislation passed at the regular session last winter. This called for an increase in state liquor store prices to bring in money to retire the bonds which will finance the bonus program.

Gov. Underwood called the special session to make changes in the bonus law to clear the way for sale of the bonds. A 3 1/4 per cent ceiling which the original act placed on the bond interest rate apparently rules out sale of the bonds in the present market.

Two Men Enlist In Army Units

Two men have enlisted at the local Army recruiting station, according to Master Sgt. W. C. Hartley, recruiter.

They are Sgt. Willard E. Kerns, husband of Mrs. Freda Kerns, Bowman's Addition, and Robert K. Morrell, Milford, Mich.

Sgt. Kerns signed up for six years and has been assigned to the 19th Engineer Battalion at Fort Meade. He has three years previous service.

Morrell was visiting friends in Cumberland when he decided to join the Army. He was assigned to the Corps of Engineers and sent to Fort Jackson, S. C., for basic training.

West Virginia Assembly To Act On Bills

Neither Of Two Measures Provides For More Revenue

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — The Legislature will consider two bills—neither of which calls for additional revenue over and above the annual $1,800,000 in extra liquor profits—when it convenes in special session Monday to dispose of the Korean War veterans' bonus problem.

Gov. Underwood in announcing details of the administration's two bonus bills yesterday said he thought there was no need to raise taxes or provide new taxes to speed up payment of the bonus bonds.

The $1,800,000 in extra liquor profits was voted by the last Legislature to provide funds for financing retirement of the bonus bonds.

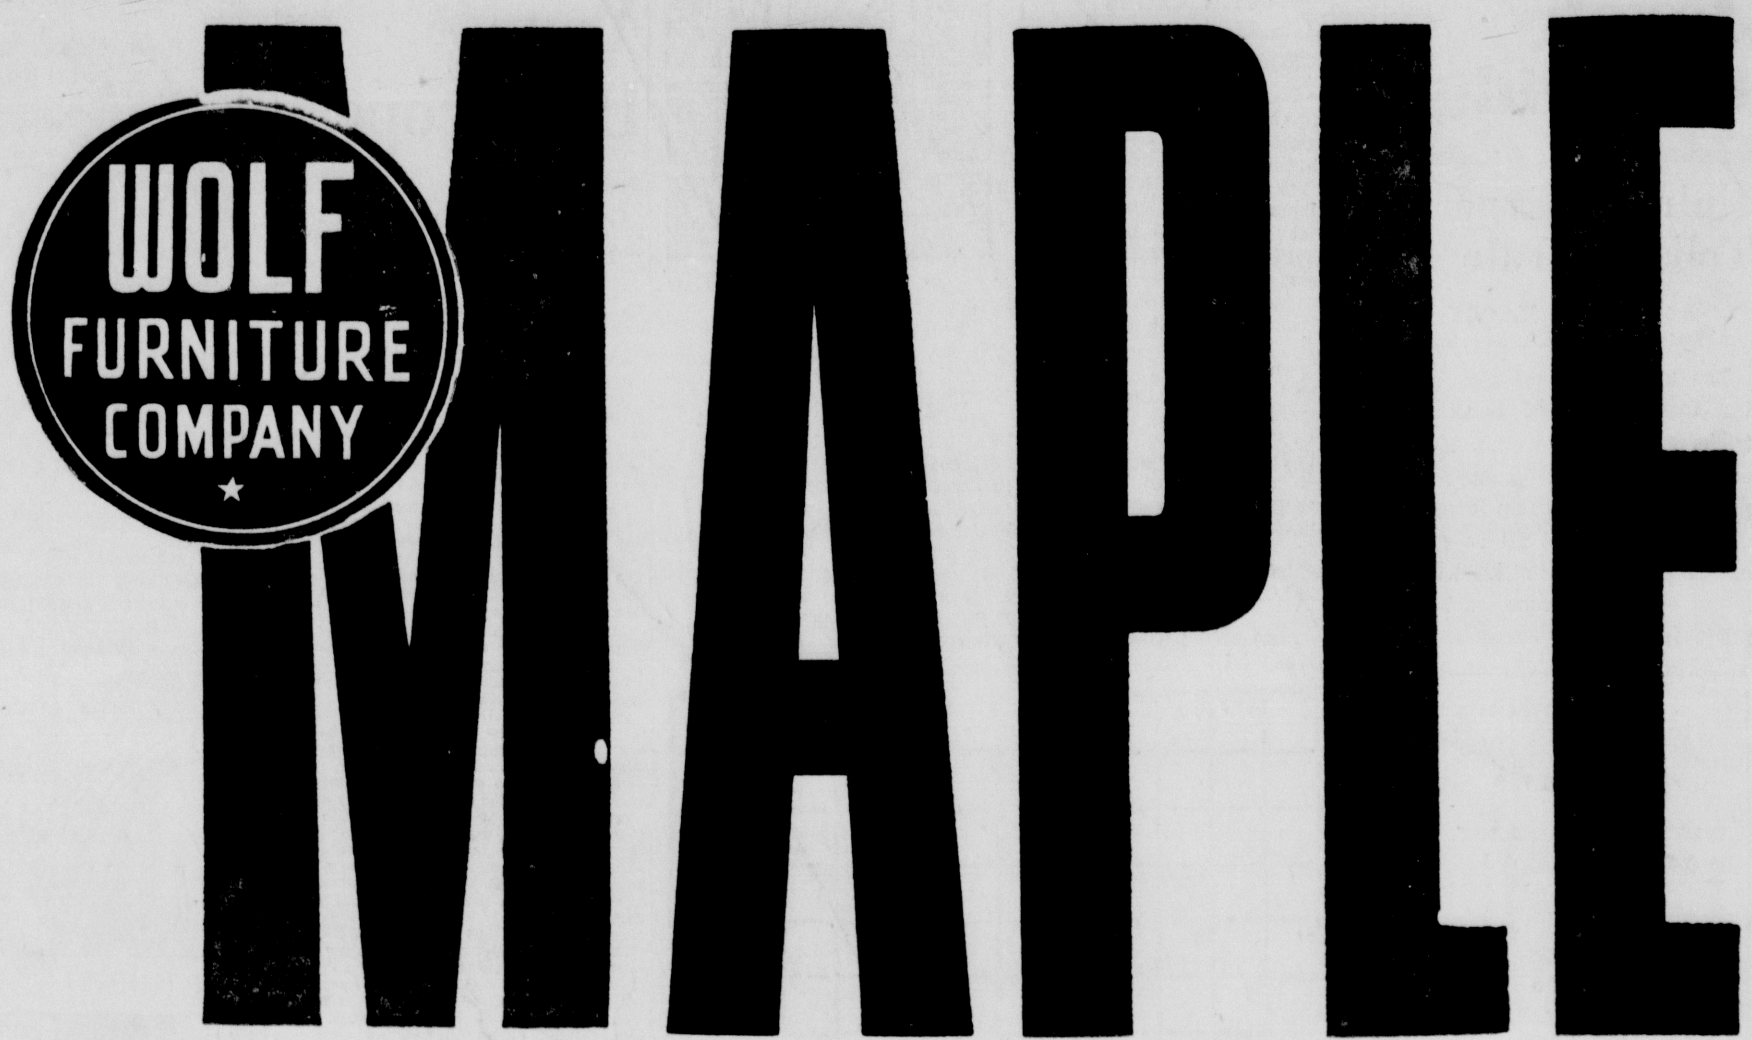

Under terms of the constitutional amendment authorizing payment of the bonus, the Legislature may raise the money by increasing the 2 per cent consumers' sales tax, establish a State income tax, or increase the tax on liquor, cigarettes and beer. Taxes on liquor, cigarettes and beer are paying for the World War I and II bonuses.

Underwood has called the extraordinary session for 11 a.m. Monday.

The House and Senate clerks said travel expenses will amount to about $3,000 for the special session.

The Senate must consider a list of more than 80 persons appointed by Underwood since the regular Legislature ended last March. More than 50 members of boards and commissions are included.

At the end of the 18th century, candlesticks superseded lanterns as a household necessity, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.
